Campaign Fund Flaws Found On Both Sides

WASHINGTON (AP) — Two committees which have funneled large amounts of money into President Nixon's reelection campaign have failed to file registration statements in apparent violation of federal law.

Examination of hundreds of campaign financial reports pouring into the General Accounting Office also shows a $25,000 loan to Democratic Presidential candidate George McGovern from a secretary who refused to say how a secretary could afford such a loan or whether the money was hers.

The Republican Support Committee of Los Angeles loaned $161,500 to the California Finance Committee to Re-elect the President on Sept. 13, reports to the GAO show.

The Executive Club of the Republican Party of New Jersey is listed as contributing $57,000 in the Sept. 1 to Oct. 16 period to 20 Nixon committees on the state level.

Another $12,000 was contributed to four national Nixon committees during the same period by William B. Colsey III who lists the same Trenton, N. J., post office box as the Executive Club.

Neither registration statements nor reports of over $100 contributors could be found for the Republican Support Committee or the Executive Club in

Thieu Throws Cold Water On Negotiations

Await Final Round Of Viet Talks

PARIS (AP) — A North Vietnamese spokesman insisted today that the peace agreement reached with the United States should be signed next Tuesday and added that Hanoi peace negotiators would be ready to meet again with Henry A. Kissinger when he wishes.

Nguyen Thanh Le told a news conference: "It was the president of the United States who proposed the date of Oct. 31 for the signature."

Le said Kissinger, President

Nixon's adviser, referred Thursday to an "honest misunderstanding" about the date. Le said:

"We don't believe there is a misunderstanding. It was written black on white in a message from the President on Oct. 20."

The presidential adviser, saying "peace is at hand... an agreement is within sight," told newsmen Thursday that "what remains to be done can be settled in one more negotiating session... lasting, I would think, no more than three or four days."

But in Saigon, South Vietnamese President Nguyen Van Thieu raised questions today about just how near at hand peace might be in Indochina. And North Vietnam also cast doubts on a quick settlement.

In London, meantime, Secretary of Defense Melvin R. Laird said that, in line with Kissinger's promise to North Vietnam, U.S. warplanes, have halted all bombing operations on that nation north of the 20th Parallel.

Although American mines in Haiphong harbor are included in the U.S. military activities above the 20th Parallel, Laird declined, at a news conference to say when the mines might be deactivated or how long the process would take.

Kissinger said the North Vietnamese were asked last Sunday to set the time and place for settling the ambiguities that arose in the push to meet a Hanoi-requested rush timetable.

North Vietnam said today, however, it had rejected prolonging of the negotiations and Washington must bear "full responsibility for the fact that the already complete peace agreement has not been signed and the war is dragging on in Vietnam."

The statement came in the form of an editorial in the official newspaper Nhan Dan, but it did not mention Kissinger, and it was not immediately clear whether it was a response to his comments.

In his first public reaction to the Kissinger announcement, Thieu told a crowd of supporters at the presidential palace in Saigon that peace will come to his war-torn country "when I sign the agreement."

Final Viet Difficulties Fuzzy In Kissinger Statement

By LEWIS GULICK
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Henry A. Kissinger's picture of peace at hand clearly etches the long leap forward in U.S.-North Vietnamese negotiations while leaving fuzzy the difficulties still in the way of a final settlement.

Obviously Hanoi's "firm demand" Wednesday that the proposed peace deal be signed Oct. 31 can hardly be met, given Kissinger's estimate that several days' negotiating will still be needed at a final secret session yet to be scheduled.

Presumably the North Vietnamese will have to relent on their deadline, and not toss in some troublesome new conditions, to fulfill the optimistic scenario of the U.S. presidential adviser.

Then there is South Vietnam's President Nguyen Van Thieu, who reaffirmed his strongly anticommunist stand in a two-hour speech Tuesday following lengthy conferences with Kissinger. The two agreed on much but differences admittedly remain.

Kissinger's plan is to get the South Vietnamese ally lined up in time for a Saigon signature jointly with America's on the peace agreement.

He will also have to persuade the North Vietnamese to let Saigon sign. Hanoi wants only a U.S. signature in behalf of the Thieu government, which the communists contend is a U.S. stooge.

The exact stand-still cease-fire areas will have to be delineated, details worked out for prompt on-the-spot policing by international supervisors, and arrangements developed for cease-fires in neighboring Laos and Cambodia.

One major military demand publicly repeated by Thieu

Tuesday was for a North Vietnamese pullback. "If they want U.S. troops to withdraw they must also withdraw their troops back to the North," he said.

The nine-point plan as disclosed by Hanoi and Washington Thursday does not call for withdrawal of North Vietnamese forces, which Hanoi has never formally admitted are in the South.

U.S. officials contend this matter is dealt with, however, by a ban against further infiltration and by provision for negotiating reduction of opposing forces in the South after the cease-fire.

On the gut political issue—who will rule in Saigon—U.S. officials expect more clashing statements from rival Vietnamese leaders as secret negotiations head into the hoped-for final lap.

6 Charged In Navy Racial Fight

HONOLULU (AP) — Charges have been filed against six black sailors involved in a racial clash aboard the fleet oiler Hassayampa Oct. 16 at Subic Bay in the Philippines, the Navy said Thursday.

A spokesman for Pacific Fleet Headquarters said five were charged with assault and one with using provoking words.

Eleven black sailors were detained after the clash, in which four white crewmen were injured. The spokesman said five were released without charge.

The Navy said the men charged with assault are Shelton Cuff, 20, of Philadelphia; Gregory L. Caldwell, 21, of Columbus, Ohio; L.S. Oliver, 21, of Lansing, Mich.; Reginald K. Collins, 21, of Chicago, and Henry L. Allen, 19, of Denham Springs, La.

Charged with using provoking words was James E. Scoby, 18, of Norfolk, Va.

The Navy said those charged with assault will be tried by special court-martial, where maximum punishment is six months confinement at hard labor, forfeiture of two-thirds pay for six months and a bad conduct discharge.

Scoby will be tried by summary court-martial, where maximum punishment is 30 days confinement at hard labor and forfeiture of two-thirds pay for one month.

Nixon Pushes Prosperity, Employment

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon, his quiet campaign for re-election bolstered by new Vietnam peace hopes, says "if you give me the chance in the next four years," he will work for prosperity and "full employment without war and without inflation."

Nixon, using a propeller-driven aircraft not usually associated with presidents these days, made a flying trip Thursday night to Huntington, W.Va., and Ashland, Ky., to stump for his own candidacy and for beleaguered Republicans seeking state offices.

Crowds estimated by police and newsmen to total more than 20,000 turned out along the way. Few derisive cries were heard and virtually all curbside placards favored Nixon's cause.

At an airport rally in Huntington, where police said 3,000 were on hand, Nixon built his impromptu campaign speech around what he termed his confidence that the United States will achieve "peace with honor and not peace with surrender in Vietnam."

Returning to a theme of his 1970 campaign in behalf of Republican candidates in an off-year election, he talked again about "a generation of peace."

But he said, "beyond that, we

Peace Reaction: Skepticism, Hope

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

There was elation and hope, tempered in some cases by fear or skepticism, as Americans reacted to the news that a cease-fire in Indochina appears near.

From the homes of families whose men are missing or held prisoner in North Vietnam, from campuses that saw violent antiwar demonstrations and from the man on the street the mixed reaction was common.

"You want to feel absolutely wonderful — yet you feel a sense of fear that it won't happen," said Mrs. Harold C. Shively of Spokane, Wash., whose son is a prisoner of war.

"We'll all be happy to have peace," said former first lady Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson, who was visiting New York when the news broke Thursday. "It seems very tenuous, but I, like everyone else, will welcome peace."

"I want to see it happen before I breathe a sigh of relief," said Noah Shaffer, 19, a sociology student at the University of California at Berkeley. "I've heard that so often."

At Columbia University, coeds passed out antiwar literature while students sunned themselves on the library steps.

"This is not the typical reaction to a war ending," said senior Tom Molony. "Even when the Mets won, people were in the streets. There's no emotion left."

"I guess part of the problem is whatever chances Mr. McGovern ever had are gone. And part of it is the war was so awful you had to stop thinking about it," he said.

Robert Gage, student body president at Ohio's Kent State University where four students were shot to death by National Guards during an antiwar demonstration in 1970, said the settlement terms "could have been accepted thousands of lives ago."

Among the relatives of prisoners of war, caution seemed the keynote after years on the emotional rollercoaster of hope and disappointment.

Roundtowners Remain Skeptical On Viet Peace

Skepticism was the reaction of the majority in a random sampling of citizens in downtown Circleville Friday morning when asked their views on the proposed peace settlement in Vietnam.

Eighteen people were asked the question by a Herald reporter. Ten gave answers, and eight declined to comment. Of the eight that would not answer, four were wearing political buttons supporting the reelection of President Richard Nixon.

Answers ranged from "I didn't pay any attention to it" to "I'm all for it, if it is real." All questioners who responded were happy that peace was near, but five leveled criticism at the length of the war.

Following are the answers, in the order given:

Mrs. Charles Jackson, 314 N. Court St. — "It's a good thing if it's true. I really want peace, but I can't understand why it didn't happen a long time ago."

Mrs. Richard Koch, 125 E. Union St. — "If Nixon can move to have the war settled so close to the election he could have done it a long time ago. It appears to be a totally political maneuver. Everyone should take a close look at him (Nixon). I don't think the American people are as dumb as the Nixon administration hopes we will be. I am happy for peace, if it is a reality."

J. R. Mowery, Stoutsville, — "Peace is good thing to have. But I've fought in Vietnam and the war could have been over with a long time ago. I can't see pulling out until things are squared away. We should give the boys there every weapon we have and let them fight a war, not a police action."

Carl Hawks, Route 1, Stoutsville — "I didn't pay any attention to it, I fell asleep. It's too much of a political issue. You can't make me believe that such a small country can be controlling us that much. Think of the money they are spending on such a small country. And the vets are bitter when they come home. Letter Bomb Arrest Made By Israelis

TEL AVIV (AP) — A 22-year-old American tourist has been arrested for investigation in connection with the murder-by-mail bombs addressed to President Nixon, Secretary of State William P. Rogers and Defense Secretary Melvin R. Laird, the state radio reported today.

The broadcast identified the suspect as Dennis Feinstein and said he came to Israel as a visitor several weeks ago.

Police gave no immediate details of the case.

Israeli explosives experts on Wednesday defused three deadly envelopes addressed to Nixon, Laird and Rogers after they were found in a post office in the Israeli frontier town of Qiryat Shmona near the Lebanese border.

Feinstein was ordered jailed for 15 days by a magistrate's court in Safed. He told the court he had nothing to do with the letter bombs, packed in ordinary blue air-mail envelopes and addressed to Washington.

Police told the court the American was picked up by an Israeli soldier in the Lebanese frontier zone "in suspicious circumstances."

The chief spokesman at Israel's national police headquarters said police were making public no details of the case. He declined to give the suspect's home address in the United States.

CINCINNATI (AP) — Douglas L. Barnett III of Cincinnati, has filed suit against Walt & Jake Sweeney Chevrolet Inc. for return of $6,953 he paid for a Cadillac plus $5,000 in damages for embarrassment.

Police said the car was reported stolen in Chicago and the engine serial numbers were missing.

Barnett said the car salesman told him the car had been owned by a retired insurance executive.

Nixon Meets Laos Leader For Talks

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon meets with Prime Minister Souvanna Phouma of Laos today for his first direct discussion of the impending Indochina cease-fire with an embattled Southeast Asian leader likely to be a major beneficiary of the truce.

Key questions for discussion are the effects of the cease-fire on the operation of the Ho Chi Minh trail and on North Vietnam's involvement in the Laos civil war by supplying troops and materiel.

The Ho Chi Minh trail, an elaborate network of supply routes running through Laos to Cambodia and South Vietnam, has been a major conduit for North Vietnamese troops and supplies for the southern fighting fronts over the past decade.

The trail has been heavily bombed by U.S. planes based in Thailand.

The United States also has been a major supporter of the Royal Lao government army and its Meo guerrilla troops led by Gen. Vang Pao.

Under the draft agreement between the United States and North Vietnam, the territory of Laos and Cambodia will not be used to encroach upon the territory of other countries. Foreign countries will "put an end to all their military activities, totally withdraw from and refrain from reintroducing into the two neutral nations any troops, military advisers, military personnel, armaments, munitions and war materiel," according to the Hanoi announcement of the agreement supporters' selfless. The in-"a very fair account."

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon meets with Prime Minister Souvana Phouma of Laos today for his first direct discussion of the impending Indochina cease-fire with an embattled Southeast Asian leader likely to be a major beneficiary of the truce.

Key questions for discussion are the effects of the cease-fire on the operation of the Ho Chi Minh trail and on North Vietnam's involvement in the Laos civil war by supplying troops and materiel.

The Ho Chi Minh trail, an elaborate network of supply routes running through Laos to Cambodia and South Vietnam, has been a major conduit for North Vietnamese troops and supplies for the southern fighting fronts over the past decade.

The trail has been heavily bombed by U.S. planes based in Thailand.

The United States also has been a major supporter of the Royal Lao government army and its Meo guerrilla troops led by Gen. Vang Pao.

Under the draft agreement between the United States and North Vietnam, the territory of Laos and Cambodia will not be used to encroach upon the territory of other countries.

Foreign countries will "put an end to all their military activities, totally withdraw from and refrain from reintroducing into the two neutral nations any troops, military advisers, military personnel, armaments, munitions and war materiel," according to the Hanoi announcement of the agreement supporters selfless. Thieu told some 1,000 city and provincial councilmen and National Assembly deputies.

"We don't know exactly what agreements have been reached. But one thing is true. We do not agree on anything yet. In this case, the only cease-fire that will take place will comply with our stands. I will present the agreement to you, and I will not sign any agreement in secret."

Kissinger told newsmen that the tentative agreement reached with Hanoi provides a cease-fire and the return of all prisoners of war held by both sides within 60 days of the date the pact is signed.

"I want to stress that what remains to be done is the smallest part of what has already been accomplished, and . . . we must remember that, having come this far, we cannot fail and we will not fail over what still remains to be accomplished."

President Nixon echoed his aide's stated determination Thursday night when he told an Ashland, Ky., audience that remaining differences "can and will be worked out" so as to bring "peace with honor and not peace with surrender."

In Moscow, the official news agency Tass reported today that Premier Alexei N. Kosygin told the envoys of North Vietnam and the Viet Cong he hoped for a quick end to the war.

Before Thieu spoke, the first official reaction from Saigon was a statement by the Foreign Ministry repeating that the only agreement acceptable to South Vietnam would have to provide for self-determination.

"The Republic of South Vietnam is ready to accept a cease-fire," the ministry said, "but will never accept a political settlement which goes against the will and interests of 17.5 million people of South Vietnam."

Kissinger, who met six times with Thieu in Saigon during a five-day period ending Monday, told newsmen on Thursday he would not go into any differences between Washington and Saigon.

The remaining points to be worked out with the North Vietnamese, Kissinger said, are these:

—How to establish an international supervisory panel in time to prevent "a last effort to seize as much territory as possible" before the cease-fire goes into effect and "to avoid the dangers of the loss of life, perhaps in some areas even of the massacre that may be inherent in this."

—Ways "to compress" the time between a cease-fire in Vietnam and a settlement in Laos and Cambodia.

—Clarification of unspecified "misapprehensions" North Vietnamese Premier Phan Van Dong evidenced in recent statements to newsmen.

—Overcoming "linguistic problems," such as making sure Hanoi understands the organization named to oversee the agreed-to Vietnamese elections—the National Council of Reconciliation and Concord—is not a coalition government.

—Determining exactly what clauses of the 1954 Geneva accords will be a part of the new settlement.

Ross Welfare Department Hosts 5-County Meeting

The Ross County Welfare Department was host Thursday for a joint meeting with the Paint Valley Mental Health and Mental Retardation Board, Directors of Welfare Department in Ross, Pickaway, Pike, Fayette, and Highland Counties, and Mr. Kenneth Harris from the Ohio Department Public Welfare, Division of Social Services, Columbus, Ohio.

R. L. Sayre, executive director of the Paint Valley Mental Health and Mental Retardation Board, stated that the Paint Valley Board on the 5 county Welfare Departments are pursuing a multi-county contract for the delivery of social services in each of the five counties. This type of contractual agreement was made possible by House Bill 1171, effective October 2, 1972.

The existing services are provided by the Scioto-Paint Valley Guidance Center. These services consist of psychiatric, psychological, and social and will be made available on a county request basis. Plans for expanded services will consist of Mobile Mental Health Unit which would be available in each of the 5 counties one full day a week with back-up services at the Scioto-Paint Valley Guidance Center.

Mr. Sayre stated that this is one of the few ways available to meet the demands for persons who need these services and that this approach will fulfill a great demand in community mental health concepts.

Referrals come from physicians, welfare departments, child welfare boards, school guidance counselors, and law enforcement agencies. Attending from Pickaway County were: Miss Pauline Reese, director; Mrs. Juanita Norman, Director of Social Services.

Man Orders Chimpanzee To Bite Cop

TITUSVILLE, Fla. (AP) — A six-member jury has found an animal trainer guilty of resisting arrest without violence for telling his pet chimpanzee "Bongo" to bite a police officer.

Rudolph Alexander, 33, of Titusville faces a maximum sentence of one year in the county jail or $1,000 fine.

Alexander was arrested in the early morning hours of Aug. 27 and charged with driving while intoxicated, resisting arrest and failure to drive in a single lane.

Prosecution witnesses said Alexander refused to go to jail without Bongo, a 4-year-old 55-pounder, but the pet monkey was having no part of the squad car driven by Patrolman Mark Reed.

Alexander told Bongo to bite the officer and "kill him," witnesses said.

Bongo took the stand Thursday and was given the same instructions regarding Asst. Brevard County Solicitor Lou Cinfrogna.

However, Bongo merely rolled over a couple of times and back-flipped into the prosecutor's lap.

The jury decided against Alexander after 2½ hours of deliberation and Magistrate Robert B. McGregor delayed sentencing.

Earlier Alexander negotiated a guilty plea on a reckless driving charge and faces 90 days in jail or a $500 fine on that count.

Final Viet . . .

A prime communist public demand has been for ouster of Thieu and installation of a three-party coalition government. Thieu has been equally set against such a political solution.

The nine-point plan, in the U.S. view, is so worded that each side can point to something in it to sustain a claim that the agreement is no giveaway.

The political clause, according to Hanoi's summary, provides for a "council of National Reconciliation and National Concord," consisting of three equal segments, "to supervise and urge the Saigon government and the Viet Cong to carry out the signed agreements and organize general elections."

Kissinger says the Vietnamese text of the proposed agreement may have to be reworded to make clear the allies don't see the council "as anything comparable to a coalition government."

He hopes Thieu will rate it as similar to the election commission already agreed to by the allies in their peace proposal made public last January.

Even with the signing of a peace agreement, some here wonder whether the proposed elections will actually take place. The two South Vietnamese sides are supposed to jointly solve the country's internal problems, if they can, within three months after the cease-fire.

Analysts here figure that in a South Vietnam-wide election the communists might get only 15 per cent of the vote and therefore may prefer to seek a governmental role by negotiation.

"I want to stress that what remains to be done is the smallest part of what has already been accomplished, and . . . we must remember that, having come this far, we cannot fail and we will not fail over what still remains to be accomplished."

President Nixon echoed his aide's stated determination Thursday night when he told an Ashland, Ky., audience that remaining differences "can and will be worked out" so as to bring "peace with honor and not peace with surrender."

In Moscow, the official news agency Tass reported today that Premier Alexei N. Kosygin told the envoys of North Vietnam and the Viet Cong he hoped for a quick end to the war.

Before Thieu spoke, the first official reaction from Saigon was a statement by the Foreign Ministry repeating that the only agreement acceptable to South Vietnam would have to provide for self-determination.

Kissinger, who met six times with Thieu in Saigon during a five-day period ending Monday, told newsmen on Thursday he would not go into any differences between Washington and Saigon.

The remaining points to be worked out with the North Vietnamese, Kissinger said, are these:

—How to establish an international supervisory panel in time to prevent "a last effort to seize as much territory as possible" before the cease-fire goes into effect and "to avoid the dangers of the loss of life, perhaps in some areas even of the massacre that may be inherent in this."

—Ways "to compress" the time between a cease-fire in Vietnam and a settlement in Laos and Cambodia.

—Clarification of unspecified "misapprehensions" North Vietnamese Premier Pham Van Dong evidenced in recent statements to newsmen.

—Overcoming "linguistic problems," such as making sure Hanoi understands the organization named to oversee the agreed-to Vietnamese elections—the National Council of Reconciliation and Concord—is not a coalition government.

—Determining exactly what clauses of the 1954 Geneva accords will be a part of the new settlement.

Ross Welfare Department Hosts 5-County Meeting

The Ross County Welfare Department was host Thursday for a joint meeting with the Paint Valley Mental Health and Mental Retardation Board, Directors of Welfare Department in Ross, Pickaway, Pike, Fayette, and Highland Counties, and Mr. Kenneth Harris from the Ohio Department Public Welfare, Division of Social Services, Columbus, Ohio.

R. L. Sayre, executive director of the Paint Valley Mental Health and Mental Retardation Board, stated that the Paint Valley Board on the 5 county Welfare Departments are pursuing a multi-county contract for the delivery of social services in each of the five counties. This type of contractual agreement was made possible by House Bill 1171, effective October 2, 1972.

The existing services are provided by the Scioto-Paint Valley Guidance Center. These services consist of psychiatric, psychological, and social and will be made available on a county request basis. Plans for expanded services will consist of Mobile Mental Health Unit which would be available in each of the 5 counties one full day a week with back-up services at the Scioto-Paint Valley Guidance Center.

Mr. Sayre stated that this is one of the few ways available to meet the demands for persons who need these services and that this approach will fulfill a great demand in community mental health concepts.

Referrals come from physicians, welfare departments, child welfare boards, school guidance counselors, and law enforcement agencies. Attending from Pickaway County were: Miss Pauline Reese, director; Mrs. Juanita Norman, Director of Social Services.

Man Orders Chimpanzee To Bite Cop

TITUSVILLE, Fla. (AP) — A six-member jury has found an animal trainer guilty of resisting arrest without violence for telling his pet chimpanzee "Bongo" to bite a police officer.

Rudolph Alexander, 33, of Titusville faces a maximum sentence of one year in the county jail or $1,000 fine.

Alexander was arrested in the early morning hours of Aug. 27 and charged with driving while intoxicated, resisting arrest and failure to drive in a single lane.

Prosecution witnesses said Alexander refused to go to jail without Bongo, a 4-year-old 55-pounder, but the pet monkey was having no part of the squad car driven by Patrolman Mark Reed.

Alexander told Bongo to bite the officer and "kill him," witnesses said.

Bongo took the stand Thursday and was given the same instructions regarding Asst. Brevard County Solicitor Lou Cinfrogna.

However, Bongo merely rolled over a couple of times and back-flipped into the prosecutor's lap.

The jury decided against Alexander after 2½ hours of deliberation and Magistrate Robert B. McGregor delayed sentencing.

Earlier Alexander negotiated a guilty plea on a reckless driving charge and faces 90 days in jail or a $500 fine on that count.

Fiery Collision Near Cincinnati

CINCINNATI (AP) — A semi-trailer tank truck, carrying gasoline, crashed with a car on southbound Interstate 75 today and exploded, but no serious injuries were reported.

The fiery collision, which sent smoke billowing over 200 feet into the air, blocked the southbound expressway for a portion of the rush-hour period. Traffic was rerouted while firemen extinguished the blaze.

Details of the accident were not available.

Final Viet . .

A prime communist public demand has been for ouster of Thieu and installation of a three-party coalition government. Thieu has been equally set against such a political solution.

The nine-point plan, in the U.S. view, is so worded that each side can point to something in it to sustain a claim that the agreement is no giveaway.

The political clause, according to Hanoi's summary, provides for a "council of National Reconciliation and National Concord," consisting of three equal segments, "to supervise and urge the Saigon government and the Viet Cong to carry out the signed agreements and organize general elections."

Kissinger says the Vietnamese text of the proposed agreement may have to be reworded to make clear the allies don't see the council "as anything comparable to a coalition government."

He hopes Thieu will rate it as similar to the election commission already agreed to by the allies in their peace proposal made public last January.

Even with the signing of a peace agreement, some here wonder whether the proposed elections will actually take place. The two South Vietnamese sides are supposed to jointly solve the country's internal problems, if they can, within three months after the cease-fire.

Analysts here figure that in a South Vietnam-wide election the communists might get only 15 per cent of the vote and therefore may prefer to seek a governmental role by negotiation.

Dear Abby: By Abigail Van Buren

Boy Dislikes Church 'Hypocrites'

DEAR ABBY: I am a 13-year-old, and my parents force me to attend church every Sunday.

I hate going to church because I see people there who I know are drunkards, gossipers, liars and cheats, and they are right there every Sunday saying their prayers and singing the hymns. I don't have any respect for hypocrites and our church is full of them, my own parents included.

I am only 13, so maybe my opinion doesn't count, but I don't see any sense in my going to church with a bunch of hypocrites.

ONLY A BOY

DEAR ONLY: Christ became a man at 13, and you are not too young to become a man either. One goes to church to learn about the Bible and the word of the Lord, although God dwells in one's heart, and it's not necessary to "go" to church to communicate with Him.

A church is not a museum for Saints, it's a hospital for sinners, so "judge not, lest ye be judged," young man.

DEAR ABBY: I do not care for dirty jokes, especially in mixed company, but I never know how to act when I hear one. (I'm a young married woman.)

Should I keep my face straight and pretend I don't understand it? (That would seem rather foolish.)

Or should I politely laugh along with everyone else?

I'm afraid if I make an issue of it and bluntly say I don't care for dirty jokes, people will think I'm a poor sport.

VIRGO

DEAR VIRGO: Don't permit ANYTHING which offends you to be said in your presence without challenging it. Silence implies tacit approval. Respectable people will respect you, and don't worry about what others think.

DEAR ABBY: My son and daughter in law have a darling two-month-old baby, and they ride all over on a motorcycle with the baby strapped to the mother's back.

My son and his wife wear heavy helmets in case they fall off or get into an accident, but the baby doesn't have anything on his head. I don't like to meddle, but I mentioned this to them, and they didn't pay any attention to me.

Now what should I do?

WORRIED

DEAR WORRIED: Mention it again! And this time explain to those foolish parents that they are exposing that child to possibly injury or death! No one should ride a motorcycle unless he is protected.

And that goes for infants too! DEAR ABBY: What are the requirements for adopting a Vietnam orphan? I am a single male, age 45. I have a nice home paid for and have an adequate income to help at least one homeless child.

I am prepared to take a trip overseas if necessary. Thank you for any information you can give me in this matter.

ALABAMAN

DEAR ALABAMAN: Write to International Social Service: W.I.F., 345 E. 46th St., New York, N.Y.

And good luck. You're beautiful.

Vo-Ed School Gets Land At CCAFB

WILMINGTON, Ohio (AP) — A Defense Department official transferred a portion of the closed Clinton County Air Force Base to a vocational school district with praise for the way the area reacted to the close down.

Barry Shillito, assistant U.S. Secretary of Defense, formally turned over the deed for 350 acres and 50 buildings to the Great Oaks Board of Education.

The site is now being used as the campus of the new Laurel Oaks Vocational School. The school has 900 students and plans eventually to have 2,300.

"There is a lesson here for other areas economically hurt by defense realignments," Shillito said. The base closing in 1971 was loudly protested by civic and business officials.

"Other areas would do well to follow the example of Wilmington and capitalize on hard-ship instead of deploring it," Shillito said.

The city is also developing an industrial park on other sections of the property.

Great Oaks was formed by the Hamilton County Board of Education and now includes Butler, Clermont, Clinton and Adams counties. The system is financed by a levy and state and federal grants.

Aviation Pioneer Igor Sikorsky Succumbs At 83

EASTON, Conn. (AP) — Igor I. Sikorsky, the Russian-born aviation pioneer who invented and flew the first practical helicopter, died Thursday at his home. He was 83.

Sikorsky retired as engineering manager of Sikorsky Aircraft in 1957, but continued to serve as engineering consultant and came to his office several days each week.

In a recent interview, Sikorsky said he considered the greatest achievement of his 63-year aviation career was designing the first practical helicopter.

Other achievements that he said are "parallel" in importance were his construction and flying of the world's first multi-engine airplane in 1913 and his work on some of the first aircraft to fly transcontinental routes — notably the Pan Am Clipper which opened routes to South America.

At last count, there were 15 countries with a slave press, 81 with a restricted or censored press, and only 44 countries with a free press.

Hazardous Rank

The highly developed penchant of bureaucrats to take care of their own is well known. But an apparent example uncovered by Sen. Harry F. Byrd Jr. of Virginia goes too far.

Following threads opened in the case of Gen. John D. Lavelle (of unauthorized bombing fame), Sen. Byrd became curious how it was the general was permitted to retire on a disability pension — nearly all tax free — although he was receiving flight pay at the time of his retirement.

Sen. Byrd's inquiries have developed that Gen. Lavelle was not the only officer so honored. In fact, if the records uncovered are any indication, being a high ranking officer in the U.S. military must rank as one of the most hazardous occupations.

Pentagon figures relayed to Sen. Byrd indicate that 523 generals have been retired from the Air Force since Jan. 1, 1964. Fifty-three per cent of them, or 277, were retired on disability pensions. Of those on disability pensions, 214 or 77 per cent were receiving flight pay within six months of retirement.

During the same period 30 per cent of retiring admirals also had been given disability pensions by the Navy. One-third of these had been receiving flight pay within six months of retirement. One is almost afraid to ask how many of the disabled admirals who had been receiving flight pay knew anything about flying aircraft.

The POW Release

By JOHN CHAMBERLAIN

Throughout the bizarre circumstances surrounding the release of three American POW's by North Vietnam, most of the families of other POW's have been understandably quiet, fearing that criticism could bar further releases. One relative of a POW, however, has now expressed some thoughts in a guest column about these events on condition that the writer remain unidentified. Here it is:

The recent, well-orchestrated release of three POW's demonstrates how willing some Americans are to carry out Hanoi's most vicious policies. This "unconditional" release was accompanied by enough dragged-out proceedings to assist North Vietnam's peace-movement puppets in their propaganda scheme, to silence the returnees, to exploit their families, and to force the Administration into the undesired role of seeming to wrest the men from Hanoi's grip in North Vietnam.

Few realize how Cora Weiss, the leader of the escort party, and the Committee of Liaison with Families of Servicemen Detained in North Vietnam, achieved prominence. Their activities are only part of a pattern of exploiting released prisoners and their hapless families.

Mrs. Weiss, David Dellinger, Rennie Davis, and others discovered long ago that the prisoner issue was made to their order. In concert with Hanoi, the group forced families to use the committee as the only channel of communication with their men. Packages of letters provided tickets of surface respectability for visitors to Hanoi. No family member dared challenge the arrangement, for any attack carried the implicit threat of cutoff of mail privileges.

Even Hanoi's "official" list of prisoners was originated by the committee. In April, 1970, Mrs. Weiss assembled a list of men for Hanoi's approval. The list was quickly endorsed by North Vietnam, who thereafter refused to accept mail for others. Despite overwhelming evidence that many others are held, perhaps by whim, countless Americans were declared missing.

The committee has also taken part in prisoner releases in the past. In groups of three, POW's, most of whom had been held only months, were selected for release and warned that any criticism of their treatment would result in an end to further releases. Much to their chagrin, however, these "typical" pilots revealed not only the conditions of their release but their prison experiences as well. The committee's sensitivity to such lack of gratitude was demonstrated by Dave Dellinger at Kennedy Airport when he screeched to the press how Major Elias had "deceived" the group about his anti-war views. (Will they send him back?)

Even the confrontation with the military was planned by Hanoi. No one should object to having the pilots go to military hospitals where medical personnel have been prepared for prisoner releases for many years. In previous releases, despite outward appearances of good health, the returnees had been found to be suffering from intestinal parasites among other physical disorders. Had Hanoi and Cora Weiss desired a strictly humanitarian gesture they would have let the men return immediately on medical planes to the U.S.

It is utterly outrageous for the "escorts" of these POW's to condemn military interference when for two weeks they controlled the circus-like events of the release. Hundreds of wives of missing men waited anxiously for some word from the releasees of their husbands' existence, health or death. Yet the Weiss-Dellinger team was obviously bent on delaying full freedom for the men for their own selfish political purposes.

The real losers of this incredible charade are the prisoners themselves; the three set free, and the hundreds left behind. While the committee distorted the truth at every turn, hundreds of prisoners and missing remain in hidden cells. Throughout the release most Americans forgot who is doing the incarcerating and who seeks to exploit these men. Also forgotten during the press conferences in Hanoi, the sightseeing and the speeches of gratitude was the fact that only one of hundreds of American pilots and civilians lost in Laos has ever been heard from since the war began! Sadly too, the three men, Gantley, Charles and Elias, may not yet be free, for no matter what they say they are likely to fear that their statements may jeopardize further releases.

The Committee of Liaison will continue its nasty business, for some misguided citizens will praise them for "helping" the prisoners while the Administration continually fails. But if Cora Weiss did not exist, Hanoi would find some other American willing to pursue her policies in the name of peace. One must remember that prisoner releases are planned for Hanoi's benefit, not for anyone else! If not, perhaps those set free would include some of our sick and those held since 1964, 1965, 1966 and 1967.

Indifference to this disgusting act of manipulation by Hanoi and her U.S. handmaidens can only encourage its repetition. We must recognize the release for what it is — one more ineffective propaganda effort on the part of North Vietnam to obscure its dismal record of POW treatment.

Speaking of YOUR HEALTH...

by LESTER L. COLEMAN, M.D.

The second of our four boys is 9 years old. He already seems to be developing hair under his arms and in the genital region.

He is embarrassed by it and we wonder how we can delicately handle the problem.

Mr. W. W. Tex.

Dear Mr. W.: It is not unusual for boys before the age of 10 to show such evidence of precocious puberty.

Strangely and simply from the point of general interest girls develop this condition more commonly than boys. It may start even at age 8 or 9.

Almost always some kind of hormone imbalance may be responsible. The readjustment soon takes place.

The cause is easily determined by some of the definitive tests that are now available.

X-rays of the joints and skull and a general physical examination can rule out the possibility of underlying important causes for such early puberty changes.

It is most important that you follow the directions of your doctor, and even seek an opinion from a psychiatrist or psychologist as to how to handle your son's embarrassment.

When this is brought out into the open, your son will not become involved in feelings of guilt or shame in the home or at school.

Many children who, with their families make a dark secret of the not-so-unusual condition, go to unusual lengths to avoid being exposed.

This merely compounds the problem, and the psychological aftermath remains long after the physical condition has been forgotten.

Is it safe to use hormone cream to remove excess hair on the upper lip and chin?

Miss B. U., Temp.

Dear Miss U.: The promiscuous use of hormones in creams, lotions and ointments is potentially hazardous without a doctor's prescription and supervision.

Hirsutism, the technical name for excess hair, has many causes. These should be investigated before any treatment is used.

Electrolysis, then used by specially trained people, can be effective in removing unwanted hair.

NEW YORK (AP) — "In curious contrast to the obvious health of the economy, the nation now fidgets with anxiety."

Thus the First National City Bank, the nation's second largest, began an essay on the mod of the country as the Nov. 7 elections approached. It continued:

"What is noteworthy about the present mood of querulousness is that it has persisted so long in the face of a favorable economic performance."

Shortly thereafter the news was released in Washington that showed consumer prices for September rose 6 per cent, the worst showing for that inflation indicator in seven months.

Are the people querulous, anxious, fidgety because they know or suspect something that the experts who work with statistics cannot seem to penetrate? It wouldn't be the first time.

There is a vast difference between a sound economy as viewed from the business or financial communities, where numbers are symbols, and the world of reality for millions of Americans, where numbers mean jobs and prices.

This disparity has seldom been more noticeable than now, even though the popular measures of economic confidence are rising, and so also is consumer spending, and the disparity is occurring at a politically critical time.

That 6 per cent rise in September prices, for example, is the last such monthly report to be released before the elections, and so it undoes a lot of progress that had been made in the previous six months.

But it isn't that 6 per cent figure that disturbs the average shopper. That number is really an old one to shoppers, a belated report on what they had already concluded from their shopping trips.

To the woman who shops every day or every week for food, the slightest price change is quickly noted. Her inflation gauge is more timely, more sensitive, more revealing. She already knows by the time the official figures are released.

To the professional economist, however, those statistics are all-important, and sometimes he forgets that those little numbers are important only in that they are symbols of little people out there in the real world.

And so you have economists who believe one thing and ordinary shoppers another. You have economists waiting for the populace to behave as they feel it should and you have people waiting for the economist's statistics to shape up.

You have businessmen who state flatly that the economy is on the verge or maybe even into one of the greatest expansions in history, and ordinary consumers who look around and decide they aren't so sure of it.

Consumer spending — which is governed not only by the ability to spend but the willingness to spend or attitude toward spending — steers the great American economic machine. And it becomes more pronounced every year.

That attitude now is difficult to ascertain. It certainly isn't demonstrated by any of the official statistics kept in Washington or interpreted by industry. But it is revealed in the querulousness.

And why the anxiety? Perhaps the mysterious gauge used by ordinary people to measure economic health is telling him something. Perhaps they still have to be convinced that post-election months won't bring more shocks.

Hazardous Rank

The highly developed penchant of bureaucrats to take care of their own is well known. But an apparent example uncovered by Sen. Harry F. Byrd Jr. of Virginia goes too far.

Following threads opened in the case of Gen. John D. Lavelle (of unauthorized bombing fame), Sen. Byrd became curious how it was the general was permitted to retire on a disability pension — nearly all tax free — although he was receiving flight pay at the time of his retirement.

Sen. Byrd's inquiries have developed that Gen. Lavelle was not the only officer so honored. In fact, if the records uncovered are any indication, being a high ranking officer in the U.S. military must rank as one of the most hazardous occupations.

Pentagon figures relayed to Sen. Byrd indicate that 523 generals have been retired from the Air Force since Jan. 1, 1964. Fifty-three per cent of them, or 277, were retired on disability pensions. Of those on disability pensions, 214 or 77 per cent were receiving flight pay within six months of retirement.

During the same period 30 per cent of retiring admirals also had been given disability pensions by the Navy. One-third of these had been receiving flight pay within six months of retirement. One is almost afraid to ask how many of the disabled admirals who had been receiving flight pay knew anything about flying aircraft.

Don't neglect to point out any possible errors made, since this is a reasonable mind, but needs a right handling. Religion is a must here early.

"The Stars impel, they do not compel." What you make of your life is largely up to YOU!

The second of our four boys is 9 years old. He already seems to be developing hair under his arms and in the genital region.

He is embarrassed by it and we wonder how we can delicately handle the problem.

Mr. W. W. Tex.

Dear Mr. W.:

It is not unusual for boys before the age of 10 to show such evidence of precocious puberty.

Strangely and simply from the point of general interest girls develop this condition more commonly than boys. It may start even at age 8 or 9.

Almost always some kind of hormone imbalance may be responsible. The readjustment soon takes place.

The cause is easily determined by some of the definitive tests that are now available.

X-rays of the joints and skull and a general physical examination can rule out the possibility of underlying important causes for such early puberty changes.

It is most important that you follow the directions of your doctor, and even seek an opinion from a psychiatrist or psychologist as to how to handle your son's embarrassment.

When this is brought out into the open, your son will not become involved in feelings of guilt or shame in the home or at school.

Many children who, with their families make a dark secret of the not-so-unusual condition, go to unusual lengths to avoid being exposed.

This merely compounds the problem, and the psychological aftermath remains long after the physical condition has been forgotten.

Is it safe to use hormone cream to remove excess hair on the upper lip and chin?

Miss B. U., Tenn.

Dear Miss U.:

The promiscuous use of hormones in creams, lotions and ointments is potentially hazardous without a doctor's prescription and supervision.

Hirsutism, the technical name for excess hair, has many causes. These should be investigated before any treatment is used.

Electrolysis, then used by specially trained people, can be effective in removing unwanted hair.

Ira Levin has written a new book which will appeal to readers who liked "Rosemary's Baby." "The Stepford Wives" is a novel about a young couple with two children who move to the suburb of Stepford to get away from the crime-ridden, dirty city. It's a picture book suburb that Joanna and Walter are very pleased with — good schools, nice houses, seemingly nice neighbors. Then Walter begins acting strangely towards Joanna. He is spending more and more time at the local men's organization. Are the Stepford men responsible for the strange transformation taking place among their wives? Will Joanna be a victim? Read it and find out.

In third place on the latest Publishers' Weekly best seller list is Alexander Solzhenitsyn's new novel "August 1914." The setting for this novel is the outbreak of World War I. The novel focuses on the defeat of Russia and the under-lying causes in the battle of Tannenberg. Michael Glenny is the translator of this first publication of this work into English.

Do you remember when Buster Crabbe as Flash Gordon protected Jean Rogers as Dale Arden from a fate worse than death? Did you find it difficult to wait for a week to see if the Lone Ranger got the drop on the bad guys? Or were you a Tarzan fan, or a follower of the Shadow or the Green Hornet? "The Great Movie Series: Their Sound and Fury" by Jim Harmon and Donald F. Glut will bring back nostalgic memories of Saturday afternoons at the local neighborhood matinees. The authors recount the history of the great movie serials from the days of Pearl White's "cliff hangers" to the last American movie serial released in 1956.

New for mystery fans is "Inspector West Takes Charge" by John Creasey. This early adventure of Roger West follows him on a murder-extortion case while he was a Scotland Yard Inspector. In "Three Green Bottles" by Dominic Devine, a teenage girl is murdered and a suspect apparently commits suicide. But then another girl is found dead. Lesley Egan's "Paper Chase" is the story of a lawyer's quiet middle-aged secretary who loved mystery novels. Then she was murdered.

Those who are intrigued by the mysteries of radio and TV will want to be aware of several new titles. "The Radio Amateur's Handbook" for 1972 is the only technical book that appeared on Time's "all time best sellers." This is the standard work for amateurs. "TV Servicing Made Easy" by Wayne Lemons is a second edition of this work. It contains information on tube type and transistor color TV. There is a separate chapter on the "different" circuits in color TV.

"TV, Radio Hi-Fi Hints & Kinks" by John J. Schultz offers tested ideas for the average equipment owner with limited knowledge of electronics. The author discusses basic tools and simple techniques which may be used by amateurs with maximum safety.

"Speak to Me of Love" by Dorothy Eden is already on the library's waiting list. It is the story of an English woman, who during Victoria's reign, turns from her unhappy aristocratic marriage to a successful business career.

Although originally limited to the West Coast, Sunset Magazine's paperbacks have become country wide best sellers. New in the library are: "Woodcarving: Techniques and Projects," "Garden and Patio Building Book," "Swimming Pools," "Planning and Remodeling Your Kitchen," "Planning and Remodeling Bathrooms," "Fences and Gates," "Chafing Dish and Fondue Cookbook," and "Oriental Cook Book."

PROFESSOR YANG

Korean Is CBC Visitor

One of Korea's educational leaders was a visitor in Circleville Thursday.

Byung Taek Yang, Professor of English Literature and Dean of the College of Education, at Kyung Hee University in Seoul, Korea, was a guest on the Circleville Bible College campus yesterday morning.

Professor Yang has been a student in the United States at the invitation of the U. S. State Department, doing special studies in English literature. Completing his two month study at a New Jersey university, Yang traveled to Circleville before leaving for England where he is to serve as English consultant to Oxford and Cambridge Universities.

His reason for being in Circleville was to visit with a relative who is a CBC student, Ho Yang. Miss Yang is the niece of the Korean professor. Her father is a member of the Supreme Court of South Korea. This is her first year at the Bible College.

Sirhan Lawyers Seek Court Review

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sirhan B. Sirhan's lawyers, complaining of improper police searches and citing new evidence, have appealed to the Supreme Court to review his conviction of murdering Sen. Robert F. Kennedy.

In the appeal filed Wednesday, attorneys Roger S. Hanson and George R. Milman said a team of psychiatrists, physicians, physicists and others have uncovered "significant physical evidence" that Sirhan did not fire the bullet that killed Kennedy. They did not elaborate.

NEW YORK (AP) — Archie Bunker & Co. are drawn from the hit British series, "Till Death Us Do Part." That title is based on the last promise a couple makes before the preacher declares them married.

Keep this in mind Saturday night. Because Archie and Edith Bunker are being asked to violate their marriage vows and, to paraphrase the old song, change partners and swing.

"All in the Family" is an unlikely forum in which to explore the phenomena of wife-swapping, but, by neddies, the show has gone and done it. And with taste, yet.

Now this definitely is the year television's ancient no-go areas — lesbianism, homosexuality, venereal disease — have been opened to the viewing public. But wife-swapping?

It's such a topical newcomer that when Carroll O'Connor went on NBC's "Tonight" and warned it was coming up on his show, the entire studio audience had just one reaction: "Oooooohh!"

But they needn't worry. Saturday's show is a hard-hat morality play. It pits the traditional values of Bunkerism against those of a middle-aged mod couple who claim they saved their marriage through "swinging."

Both sides get together because Edith is innocent. She finds a copy of "Now Family" magazine in the subway and starts browsing. In the magazine's swap section, she doesn't know about that kind of swap.

A fun-loving "mature, lonely couple" is advertising that they'd like to meet a similar couple "to swap good times." Edith answers the ad and invites them over to the house.

A few scenes later the doorbell rings. Well-dressed Curtis and Ruth Rempley (Vincent Gardenia and Rue McClanahan) burst into the Bunkers' life with the cry, "Here we are!"

Naturally, they befuddle Archie. When Edith explains that she answered their personal ad, he tries to make the best of it. He offers them drinks. Curtis declines with a leer: "It dulls the senses."

The Rempleys don't smoke, either. They do get a severe case of the giggles when a pulled Archie says, "Ye don't smoke, ye don't drink — what do ye do for fun?"

In the course of events, the Bunkers learn what the score is. And Archie hits the roof: "Swinging? Is that what you call it?"

"Well, what do you call it?" Curtis demands.

"Communism," roars Archie. "You're undermining the nation!"

"I'll have you know I went to the Republican convention!" his guest retorts.

It's a funny confrontation that neatly makes the point that "swingers" aren't a breed that can be spotted at 20 paces; most don't outwardly differ from the average couple next door.

As far as Archie is concerned, their way of life is a bummer. He orders the Rempleys from his home. They slink out of his life, a sad, lonely couple that tried to stay together by playing apart.

Kroger Ordered To Cut Prices

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Kroger Co., headquartered in Cincinnati, was ordered by the Price Commission Thursday to reduce prices in certain categories of its retail drugstores and wholesale margins.

The Commission said the firm violated profit-margin restraints.

Kroger is barred from increasing prices of any goods or services without written commission approval, the commission said. It told Kroger to submit a plan by Nov. 6 detailing the price reductions.

Kroger is one of the nation's largest food chains. It has annual revenues of $3.7 billion.

Ira Levin has written a new book which will appeal to readers who liked "Rosemary's Baby." "The Stepford Wives" is a novel about a young couple with two children who move to the suburb of Stepford to get away from the crime-ridden, dirty city. It's a picture book suburb that Joanna and Walter are very pleased with — good schools, nice houses, seemingly nice neighbors. Then Walter begins acting strangely towards Joanna. He is spending more and more time at the local men's organization. Are the Stepford men responsible for the strange transformation taking place among their wives? Will Joanna be a victim? Read it and find out.

In third place on the latest Publishers' Weekly best seller list is Alexander Solzhenitsyn's new novel "August 1914." The setting for this novel is the outbreak of World War I. The novel focuses on the defeat of Russia and the under-lying causes in the battle of Tannenberg. Michael Glenny is the translator of this first publication of this work into English.

Do you remember when Buster Crabbe as Flash Gordon protected Jean Rogers as Dale Arden from a fate worse than death? Did you find it difficult to wait for a week to see if the Lone Ranger got the drop on the bad guys? Or were you a Tarzan fan, or a follower of the Shadow, or the Green Hornet? "The Great Movie Series: Their Sound and Fury" by Jim Harmon and Donald F. Glut will bring back nostalgic memories of Saturday afternoons at the local neighborhood matinees. The authors recount the history of the great movie serials from the days of Pearl White's "cliff hangers" to the last American movie serial released in 1956.

New for mystery fans is "Inspector West Takes Charge" by John Creasey. This early adventure of Roger West follows him on a murder-extortion case while he was a Scotland Yard Inspector. In "Three Green Bottles" by Dominic Devine, a teenage girl is murdered and a suspect apparently commits suicide. But then another girl is found dead. Lesley Egan's "Paper Chase" is the story of a lawyer's quiet middle-aged secretary who loved mystery novels. Then she was murdered.

Those who are intrigued by the mysteries of radio and TV will want to be aware of several new titles. "The Radio Amateur's Handbook" for 1972 is the only technical book that appeared on Time's "all time best sellers." This is the standard work for amateurs. "TV Servicing Made Easy" by Wayne Lemons is a second edition of this work. It contains information on tube type and transistor color TV. There is a separate chapter on the "different" circuits in color TV. "TV, Radio Hi-Fi Hints & Kinks" by John J. Schultz offers tested ideas for the average equipment owner with limited knowledge of electronics. The author discusses basic tools and simple techniques which may be used by amateurs with maximum safety.

"Speak to Me of Love" by Dorothy Eden is already on the library's waiting list. It is the story of an English woman, who during Victoria's reign, turns from her unhappy aristocratic marriage to a successful business career.

Although originally limited to the West Coast, Sunset Magazine's paperbacks have become country wide best sellers. New in the library are: "Woodcarving: Techniques and Projects;" "Garden and Patio Building Book;" "Swimming Pools;" "Planning and Remodeling Your Kitchen;" "Planning and Remodeling Bathrooms;" "Fences and Gates;" "Chafing Dish and Fondue Cookbook;" and "Oriental Cook Book."

PROFESSOR YANG

Korean Is CBC Visitor

One of Korea's educational leaders was a visitor in Circleville Thursday.

Completing his two month study at a New Jersey university, Yang traveled to Circleville before leaving for England where he is to serve as English consultant to Oxford and Cambridge Universities.

His reason for being in Circleville was to visit with a relative who is a CBC student, Ho Yang. Miss Yang is the niece of the Korean professor. Her father is a member of the Supreme Court of South Korea. This is her first year at the Bible College.

The bazaar committee has also added a package check room to assist shoppers.

The Twig Bazaar features free parking, easy access from I-71, lounge area, tea room, snack bar and sack lunches for tired and hungry shoppers, and a coat check.

Bank Americard and Mastercharge cards will be accepted at the bazaar.

All proceeds from the sale of items and services are donated

Red-Black Staff Reveals Its Schoolyear Operation

MEET THE STAFF—Writers and editors for the Red and Black staff this year include: row 1. Don Goeller, Dave Truex, Glen Gillespie, Bruce

By LAURIE AYERS and KRIS RIED

For those who have been wondering who the "little people" are who write this page, we, the 1972-73 Red and Black Staff, are revealing the secret.

From headquarters in the hollow tree (in the middle of the "Keebler" forest) better known as Room 407, hideout of the head elf, Mr. Houck, this weekly publication is scribbled by Pat Currie, Don Goeller, Deb Radabaugh, June Brudzinski, Dave Truex, Debbie Brian, Glen Ried.

Gillespie, Patty Ankrom, Kris Ried, Laurie Ayers, Teresa Mallett, Barb Souder, Marcia Plescia and Bruce Rickard. Under the disguise of "real" people, we interview, take pictures and scrawl articles during the forty-five minutes allotted to us as class time.

Queen Kathy Foresees Busy Reign

QUEEN KATHY ULAND
Pumpkin show '72

By KRIS RIED
This year's honored queen comes from Circleville High School's own halls. Being crowned Wednesday night as Miss Pumpkin Show 1972 was the beginning of a very exciting year to come.

Kathy Uland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Uland, 592 Oakland Terrace, was CHS's junior candidate. She was selected as queen from all the other candidates from Pickaway County.

Her outfit that Wednesday night was a baby blue wool knit suit, consisting of a skirt and short jacket.

The week's events for the new queen and her attendants included meeting most of the other county queens and being invited to their festivals. Thursday was a big day for Kathy when she was on the Bob Braun television program.

Friday and Saturday, Kathy rode on a float with her court during the parades. In the spring traveling begins, with some events in other states.

Often seen riding through the crowds on a golf cart was Kathy with either Mayor Barnhill or Ned Harden, Vice President of Pumpkin Show. To avoid running down people, the queen and her two attendants pitched in to buy Harden a bugle horn.

Rickard; row 2. Teresa Mallett, Barb Souder, Kris Ried, Debbie Radabaugh, Pat Currie, Laurie Ayers, Patty Ankrom, Marcia Plescia. Not present were staff members Debbie Brian and June Brudzinski.

Each week we elves are kept running in the forest, checking places for hidden messages. Two elf editors are chosen for a three-week period, during which they take charge of deciphering and getting all messages in on time.

We try to satisfy all of our readers by writing articles for people of all ages. "Looking Back" is for graduates and

Audio-Visual Staff Handles Citywide Use Of Films, Tapes

Editorial Note: This will be a weekly series that will deal in the activities with which students are involved in the operation of CHS.

The CHS Audio-Visual Department has many jobs. A-V workers catalogue and control the use of instructional materials such as films, records, tapes, transparencies and filmloops as well as handling the vast array of equipment required for such material.

There are 25 members at the high school. They are: Steve Allen, Teresa Ankrom, Barry Garner, Duane Howard, Bill Hulse, Bill Sanscrainte, Dave Truex, Scott Clifton, Greg Hoskins, Glen Gillespie, Dan Graham, Pat Currie, John Stout, Pam Hill, Dan Goeglein, Barb Souder, Doug Radabaugh, John Myers, Hal Conrad, Lyn Hedges, Doug Palm, Robin Ott, Sue Lipko, Scott Jones, Judy Bobo and Mark Mills. The advisor is Mr. John Lawhorn.

As suppliers to all elementary schools, the department is kept busy. Its secretaries and transportation department work closely with the other schools in the district.

There is an immense amount of work done outside of teaching aids. This is handled by a special duties crew. Members of this crew are the unsung heroes of school com-

CHS Undaunted By Bad Weather

Braving the freezing temperature, sleeting rain, and treacherous footing, the Circleville Cross-Country team captured the Fairfield Cross-Country Invitational with an incredible 23 points.

With Dick Liston and Jeff Robbins leading the field, the Tigers were never threatened. Matt McGowan finished fifth, Steve Watters, eighth, Glen Gillespie, ninth, Robin Martin, twelfth, and Bill Massie, thirteenth. The addition of this trophy now runs the Tigers total to three.

Tomorrow morning at 10:30 a.m., Circleville runs to defend its district crown at Raymond Memorial Golf Course. The Tigers are now rated as the top team in the Central-Ohio area and will have to be at their best to win the meet and advance to the state meet.

School Show Aired Sunday

Who would come to school every morning at 7:15, before the sun is even up, and crank their brains into high gear for 35 minutes of intense thinking? The "In the Know" team, that's who!

Eight dedicated members and two advisers have been practicing faithfully in room 305 for the past five weeks in preparation for their first match.

Mike Cairns, Tom Hamilton, Dean Gulick and Elizabeth Schollenberger, the varsity team, depend on quick recall and fast reflexes when they answer the 100-plus questions asked by Mr. Higgins at each session. The reserve team, comprised of June Brudzinski, Tom Spring, Cheryl Blaney and Amy Curtiss, provides spirited and often loud competition, with Mrs. Mader as official recognizer and "referee."

The game against Gahanna Lincoln was taped last night and will be shown this Sunday on Channel 10 at 7 p.m. We won't disclose the winners at this time; you will have to watch to find out!

CHS Nearer Title Goal

By DAVE TRUEX

Climbing at least a share of the SCOL title, the Tigers of Circleville spoiled Greenfield's homecoming 34-14.

The first half was a comedy of errors as both teams made numerous mistakes. Circleville was lucky to go into half-time tied 14-14. An aroused bunch of Tigers came out to start the second half and played tough, hard-hitting football. The offense, led by an inspired line and hard-running backs, scored three touchdowns all on the ground. The defense also awakened to the challenge and shut out McClain.

Tonight's game with Miami Trace is by far the Tigers' most important as they are out to revenge last year's 40-8 loss. The Panthers have a fine passing attack lead by quarterback Pete Jones and top receivers Jeff Spears and Glen Clifford. The running attack is paced by hardrunning tailback Tony Grooms.

The Tigers will have to come up with a tremendous team effort. On offense they must have a balanced attack and will not be able to make any costly turnovers. The defense will have to be hard-hitting and aggressive. The secondary faces its biggest challenge of the year as they will have to contain Trace's passing attack.

Coach Larry Cook's Tigers have the incentive to win, as they want to add a big, shiny gold football, which is symbolic of an unbeaten SCOL football championship to CHS's trophy case.

Student Council Hosts Annual Parents Night

First Year Is Challenge

By DEBBIE RADABAUGH

"My first year of teaching has been quite a challenge, and is keeping me extremely busy." This was the statement of Steve McElroy, sophomore C. P. English teacher. He has taken over the job of Mrs. Helen Wachs, who retired last year.

McElroy resides in Columbus at 138 Northridge Road. He received his BA in English from Ohio State University, and was a substitute in Columbus area schools last year.

The new CHS teacher wants his sophomore students to become better writers. Also one of his goals is to have them achieve a greater understanding of various authors' works, and to realize the authors' crafts, while becoming more aware readers.

Swinning, tennis, bicycling, and reading consume most of his spare time. He feels the students at CHS have been quite "pleasant, co-operative and helpful."

Stoutsville Girl Joins Student Body

The new student featured this week is Melissa Plummer. She resides with her mother, Kathryn Greeno at 115 Hayes Court.

Before coming to Circleville, Melissa lived in Stoutsville and attended Amanda - Clearcreek High School.

While at Amanda-Clearcreek, she took part in FNA, FHA and GAA. Here she belongs to Jr. DECA and hopes to become a member of GAA.

Melissa's hobbies are sewing and listening to records. She also enjoys sports such as basketball, track and swimming. When asked her opinion of CHS, Melissa said, "I like it here a lot. The students are friendly, and they have a good

Boys Dominate Industrial Arts

Hey girls, what is that mysterious place which the boys disappear into for six periods each week but never seem to talk about?

It is the industrial arts area, of course. Beginning and advanced woods are taught by Mr. Brudzinski, while Mr. Spring is the metals and automobiles instructor.

The usual picture conjured up at the mention of "wood shop" is of a group of boys happily pounding nails into boards. Actually, beginning classes learn about hand and power tools, and the advanced course deals with the technical part of wood working, including cabinet-making and construction.

"Making the project is secondary," states Mr. Brudzinski. Students must form ideas, plan accordingly, and then put theory into practice. It's not as easy as it looks!"

"This is where the action is," says Mr. Spring, about the metal shop. Here students learn welding, foundry work, such as melting and casting, sheet metal work, and general maintenance, to cite just a few examples.

The automobiles boys study the various car systems the first semester, so that they can apply their knowledge in actual experience the second semester.

Mr. Spring emphasizes, "We have a great need for this type of education."

There is such great interest in industrial arts that it has been necessary to limit enrollment this year.

Conference Day Means Vacation

Great News! Students will receive a half-day vacation Nov. 1. They will be dismissed from school at 1 p.m.

Parents are invited to visit the school and talk with the teachers. Problems of students and class activities will be fully explained.

So, students, beware! Be on your best behavior this week, so the teachers will have nothing but A-one reports to give your parents.

College Test Given By County Counselors

CHS was a test center for the ACT (American College Test) for the first time last week.

The test was given to 100 students Saturday and was administered by Doris Gillespie and Richard Fisher, guidance counselors at CHS. Assisting them were Howard Weaver and Frances Labuda, counselors from Teays Valley; Jim Fletcher, Logan Elm; and Ed Holmes, Westfall.

The schedule for the remaining test dates will be: Dec. 9, Feb. 24, April 28 and July 21. The only time the ACT will be given at CHS again this school year will be on the July 21 test date. Students can take the test at other test centers in Columbus, Chillicothe and Lancaster on the other designated test days.

MINI-MESSAGE

By CECIL SAGRAVES

WHO IS MY FATHER?

Is God the Father of all people? Absolutely not! Good is only the Father of His children. One can only be a child of God if he has been born again. See John 3:3.

The Spirit of God must abide in you in order for you to be an heir of God and a joint-heir with Christ.

Jesus said in John 3:7, "Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again."

Just remember one thing you must be born by a natural birth to have a father. And, if a person is never born, he never existed. So, by the same token, if you don't have the birth from above, you don't exist in the eyes of God. The Bible declares that you are dead without God.

On the other hand, the unregenerated people do have a father, and his name is Lucifer, the Devil.

Notice what the Bible says. "Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do . . ."

John 8:44.

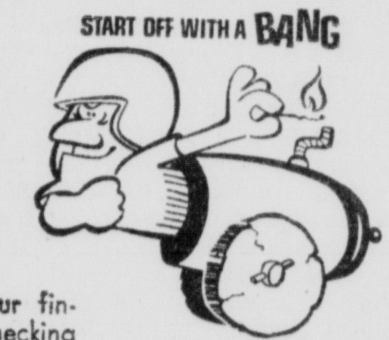

If you are fulfilling the lust of the flesh your father is the devil; but if you are filled with the Holy Spirit your father is God.

Who is your father?

The Red and Black

Red-Black Staff Reveals Its Schoolyear Operation

MEET THE STAFF—Writers and editors for the Red and Black staff this year include: row 1. Don Goeller, Dave Truex, Glen Gillespie, Bruce Rickerd; row 2. Teresa Mallett, Barb Souder, Kris Ried, Debbie Radabaugh, Pat Currie, Laurie Ayers, Patty Ankrom, Marcia Plescia. Not present were staff members Debbie Brian and June Brudzinski.

For those who have been wondering who the "little people" are who write this page, we, the 1972-73 Red and Black Staff, are revealing the secret.

From headquarters in the hollow tree (in the middle of the "Keebler" forest) better known as Room 407, hideout of the head elf, Mr. Houck, this weekly publication is scribbled by Pat Currie, Don Goeller, Deb Radabaugh, June Brudzinski, Dave Truex, Debbie Brian, Glen Ried, Gillespie, Patty Ankrom, Kris Ried, Laurie Ayers, Teresa Mallett, Barb Souder, Marcia Plescia and Bruce Rickerd.

Under the disguise of "real" people, we interview, take pictures and scrawl articles during the forty-five minutes allotted to us as class time.

Each week we elves are kept running in the forest, checking places for hidden messages. Two elf editors are chosen for a three-week period, during which they take charge of deciphering and getting all messages in on time.

We try to satisfy all of our readers by writing articles for people of all ages. "Looking Back" is for graduates and older people, providing them with the opportunity to reminisce about the "good old days." Parents of students are informed of what is going on at the high school by reading the articles. Students can get their facts straight from our page.

We encourage everyone to read the Red and Black page every Friday.

Audio-Visual Staff Handles Citywide Use Of Films, Tapes

Editorial Note: This will be a weekly series that will deal in the activities with which students are involved in the operation of CHS.

The CHS Audio-Visual Department has many jobs. A-V workers catalogue and control the use of instructional materials such as films, records, tapes, transparencies and filmstrips as well as handling the vast array of equipment required for such material.

There are 25 members at the high school. They are: Steve Allen, Teresa Ankrom, Barry Garner, Duane Howard, Bill Hulise, Bill Sanscrainte, Dave Truex, Scott Clifton, Greg Hoskins, Glen Gillespie, Dan Graham, Pat Currie, John Stout, Pam Hill, Dan Goeglein, Barb Souder, Doug Radabaugh, John Myers, Hal Conrad, Lynn Hedges, Doug Palm, Robin Ott, Sue Lipko, Scott Jones, Judy Bobo and Mark Mills. The advisor is Mr. John Lawhorn.

As suppliers to all elementary schools, the department is kept busy. Its secretaries and transportation department work closely with the other schools in the district.

There is an immense amount of work done outside of teaching aids. This is handled by a special duties crew. Members of this crew are the unsung heroes of school communications. Sports, class plays and assemblies all depend on this crew to run smoothly. Last spring's Berger Hospital Guild "High Fever Follies" used a lighting crew of these young men.

In a time when headlines scream what is wrong with today's youth, the Red and Black would like to show a small portion of the school and community interest displayed daily.

CHS Undaunted By Bad Weather

Braving the freezing temperature, sleeting rain, and treacherous footing, the Circleville Cross-Country team captured the Fairfield Cross-Country Invitational with an incredible 23 points.

With Dick Liston and Jeff Robbins leading the field, the Tigers were never threatened. Matt McGowan finished fifth, Steve Watters, eighth, Glen Gillespie, ninth, Robin Martin, twelfth, and Bill Massie, thirteenth. The addition of this trophy now runs the Tigers total to three.

Tomorrow morning at 10:30 a.m., Circleville runs to defend its district crown at Raymond Memorial Golf Course. The Tigers are now rated as the top team in the Central-Ohio area and will have to be at their best to win the meet and advance to the state meet.

QUEEN KATHY ULAND
Pumpkin show '72

By KRIS RIED

This year's honored queen comes from Circleville High School's own halls. Being crowned Wednesday night as Miss Pumpkin Show 1972 was the beginning of a very exciting year to come.

Kathy Uland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Uland, 592 Oakland Terrace, was CHS's junior candidate. She was selected as queen from all the other candidates from Pickaway County.

Her outfit that Wednesday night was a baby blue wool knit suit, consisting of a skirt and short jacket.

The week's events for the new queen and her attendants included meeting most of the other county queens and being invited to their festivals. Thursday was a big day for Kathy when she was on the Bob Braun television program.

Friday and Saturday, Kathy rode on a float with her court during the parades. In the spring traveling begins, with some events in other states.

Often seen riding through the crowds on a golf cart was Kathy with either Mayor Barnhill or Ned Harden, Vice President of Pumpkin Show. To avoid running down people, the queen and her two attendants pitched in to buy Harden a bugle horn.

Teens Try Pantomime

By DON GOELLER

This week a group of fledgling Marcel Marceans closed their mouths and used all their creative instincts as Mrs. Hall's speech classes began the study of the pantomime.

In the dictionary, this word is defined as "a play without words," in which the actors express themselves by gestures. It could not have been more true as each member of the class mimicked his way through everything from "changing a tire" to "hitting a two-bagger."

Later in the week, the students were asked to compose a two minute pantomime containing five separate distinguishable actions, but all related to the same basic idea. Many of these were very good; and all were well worth the time spent, as another of the many forms of communication was studied.

Curtain Callers Being Revived

CHS Curtain Callers held their first meeting Oct. 11, in the cafeteria.

Since no meetings were held at the end of school last year, officers were elected at this first meeting. After being elected president Mike Logan led nomination and election of other officers. Pat Currie was elected vice-president, Nancy Clifton, secretary-treasurer, and Dee-Anna Lowe and Margaret Merrill were elected as directors.

Although the activities of Curtain Callers have declined somewhat over the years, what was once a very active club is now being revived.

Plans are currently being made for the rebirth of "A Night of One Act Plays," which used to be an annual event of this club. No date has been set yet for the performances. All proceeds will go to C.A.R.E.

Teens Try Pantomime

By DON GOELLER

This week a group of fledgling Marcel Marceans closed their mouths and used all their creative instincts as Mrs. Hall's speech classes began the study of the pantomime.

In the dictionary, this word is defined as "a play without words," in which the actors express themselves by gestures. It could not have been more true as each member of the class mimicked his way through everything from "changing a tire" to "hitting a two-bagger."

Later in the week, the students were asked to compose a two minute pantomime containing five separate distinguishable actions, but all related to the same basic idea. Many of these were very good; and all were well worth the time spent, as another of the many forms of communication was studied.

Curtain Callers Being Revived

CHS Curtain Callers held their first meeting Oct. 11, in the cafeteria.

Since no meetings were held at the end of school last year, officers were elected at this first meeting. After being elected president Mike Logan led nomination and election of other officers. Pat Currie was elected vice-president, Nancy Clifton, secretary-treasurer, and DeeAnna Lowe and Margaret Merrill were elected as directors.

Although the activities of Curtain Callers have declined somewhat over the years, what was once a very active club is now being revived.

Plans are currently being made for the rebirth of "A Night of One Act Plays," which used to be an annual event of this club. No date has been set yet for the performances. All proceeds will go to C.A.R.E.

No Cancer From Pills

LONDON (AP) — A British government committee says contraceptive pills, including the progestogen minipill, do not cause cancer.

After a six-year investigation, the Committee on the Safety of Medicines said in a report today:

"The evidence does not show that long-term use of oral contraceptives in their present formulation may give rise to cancer."

Drug manufacturers will be licensed to make 10 new brands of the pill, including five of the progestogen type withdrawn two years ago after American reports that it created tumors in beagle dogs.

British doctors said beagles were prone to breast cancer anyway. Britain will become the first country to reintroduce the minipills, which contain only the hormone progestogen, do not cause blood clots and have few side effects.

The committee based its report on experiments in which hundreds of rats and mice were injected with massive dosages of estrogen and progestogen to assess the cancer risk.

City Supervisor Guilty Of Fraud

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—A former Cleveland sewage plant supervisor, Walter Tresville Jr., and two officials of the Ohio Disposal Corp. have pleaded guilty to charges of conspiring to defraud the city of $2,442.

In the latest action, he pleaded guilty to two counts of conspiring to defraud the city stemming from operations of the Southernly sewage treatment plant.

Jerry Shepard, president of Ohio Disposal, and Byron J. Sharp, a salesman for the firm, pleaded guilty to two counts of conspiracy, one count of false presentation for payment and one count of forgery.

U.S. Fashion Dean Norman Norell Dies

NEW YORK (AP) — Superb tailoring and enduring style were the trademarks of clothes by Norman Norell, the award-winning dean of American fashion designers who has died at age 72.

Norell, who died Wednesday, suffered a stroke Oct. 15, the day before the Metropolitan Museum of Art exhibited a collection of his designs over the past 50 years.

Elegant entertainment stars and other celebrities coveted their Norell coats and suits and dramatic evening clothes, particularly the famous long sequined gowns.

Born in Noblesville, Ind., the son of a haberdasher named Levinson, Norman came to New York at age 19 to study art. He was designing costumes for Rudolph Valentino and Gloria Swanson by the time he was 22.

He teamed up with Anthony Traina in 1911 and for nearly 20 years Traina-Norell designs were a fashion byword, creating an atmosphere of prestige that helped make New York worthy of comparison with Paris as a design center. He was an instant success in his own business after Traina retired in 1960.

Over the years, his clients included the former first lady, Lady Bird Johnson; entertainment stars like Lauren Bacall, Carol Channing and Dinah Shore; and other celebrities.

Village Has Lights Shut Off; No Funds

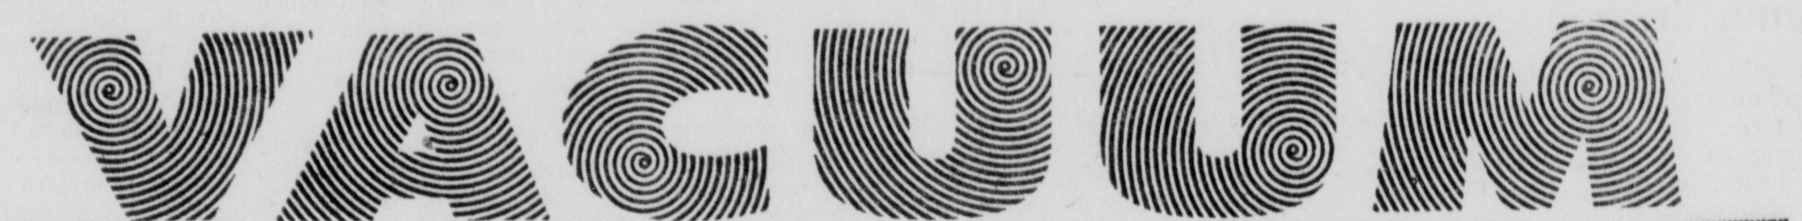

YORKTOWN, Va. (AP) — The Virginia Electric & Power Co. was to undertake the task today of disconnecting the 34 street lights here, one by one, because Yorktown hasn't paid its electric bill for four months.

York County Administrator William P. Larew asked the utility company to discontinue service because of the overdue bill.

Economics Class Learns Lesson Well

BETHLEHEM, Pa. (AP) — It wouldn't be too bad a bet to let Prof. John Grencer's Moravian College economics class play with your money.

His students have run up a 94 per cent gain over the past 28 months in their investments on the New York stock market. This compares to a 51 per cent gain during that time for the Dow-Jones average.

Steve -
Your dinner
is in oven.
Mom

Steve doesn't mind. Only a little. He knows Dad has to travel. And some days Mom must work the swing shift.

Steve doesn't mind. Not very much. It's just that food doesn't make a dinner. It's like a vacuum when you're alone. And the evening — what's to do?

Such vacuums can affect adversely the developing personality of a child. They can also test a child's sense of security and self-reliance.

We claim no expertise in child psychology. Our concern, however, is that there be no Sunday morning vacuum. A Steve whose character is being molded by spiritual and moral training, a Steve whose home has the atmosphere of religious conviction and integrity... such a Steve is better equipped to meet the tests of loneliness and freedom.

In many families we cannot alter circumstances—but we can foster quality of character to cope with it. The Church is ready to help!

U.S. Fashion Dean Norman Norell Dies

NEW YORK (AP) — Superb tailoring and endearing style were the trademarks of clothes by Norman Norell, the award-winning dean of American fashion designers who has died at age 72.

Norell, who died Wednesday, suffered a stroke Oct. 15, the day before the Metropolitan Museum of Art exhibited a collection of his designs over the past 50 years.

Elegant entertainment stars and other celebrities coveted their Norell coats and suits, particularly the famous long sequined gowns.

Born in Noblesville, Ind., the son of a haberdasher named Levinson, Norman came to New York at age 19 to study art. He was designing costumes for Rudolph Valentino and Gloria Swanson by the time he was 22.

He teamed up with Anthony Traina in 1911 and for nearly 20 years Traina-Norell designs were a fashion byword, creating an atmosphere of prestige that helped make New York worthy of comparison with Paris as a design center. He was an instant success in his own business after Traina retired in 1960.

Over the years, his clients included the former first lady, Lady Bird Johnson; entertainment stars like Lauren Bacall, Carol Channing and Dinah Shore; and other celebrities.

Village Has Lights Shut Off; No Funds

YORKTOWN, Va. (AP) — The Virginia Electric & Power Co. was to undertake the task today of disconnecting the 34 street lights here, one by one, because Yorktown hasn't paid its electric bill for four months.

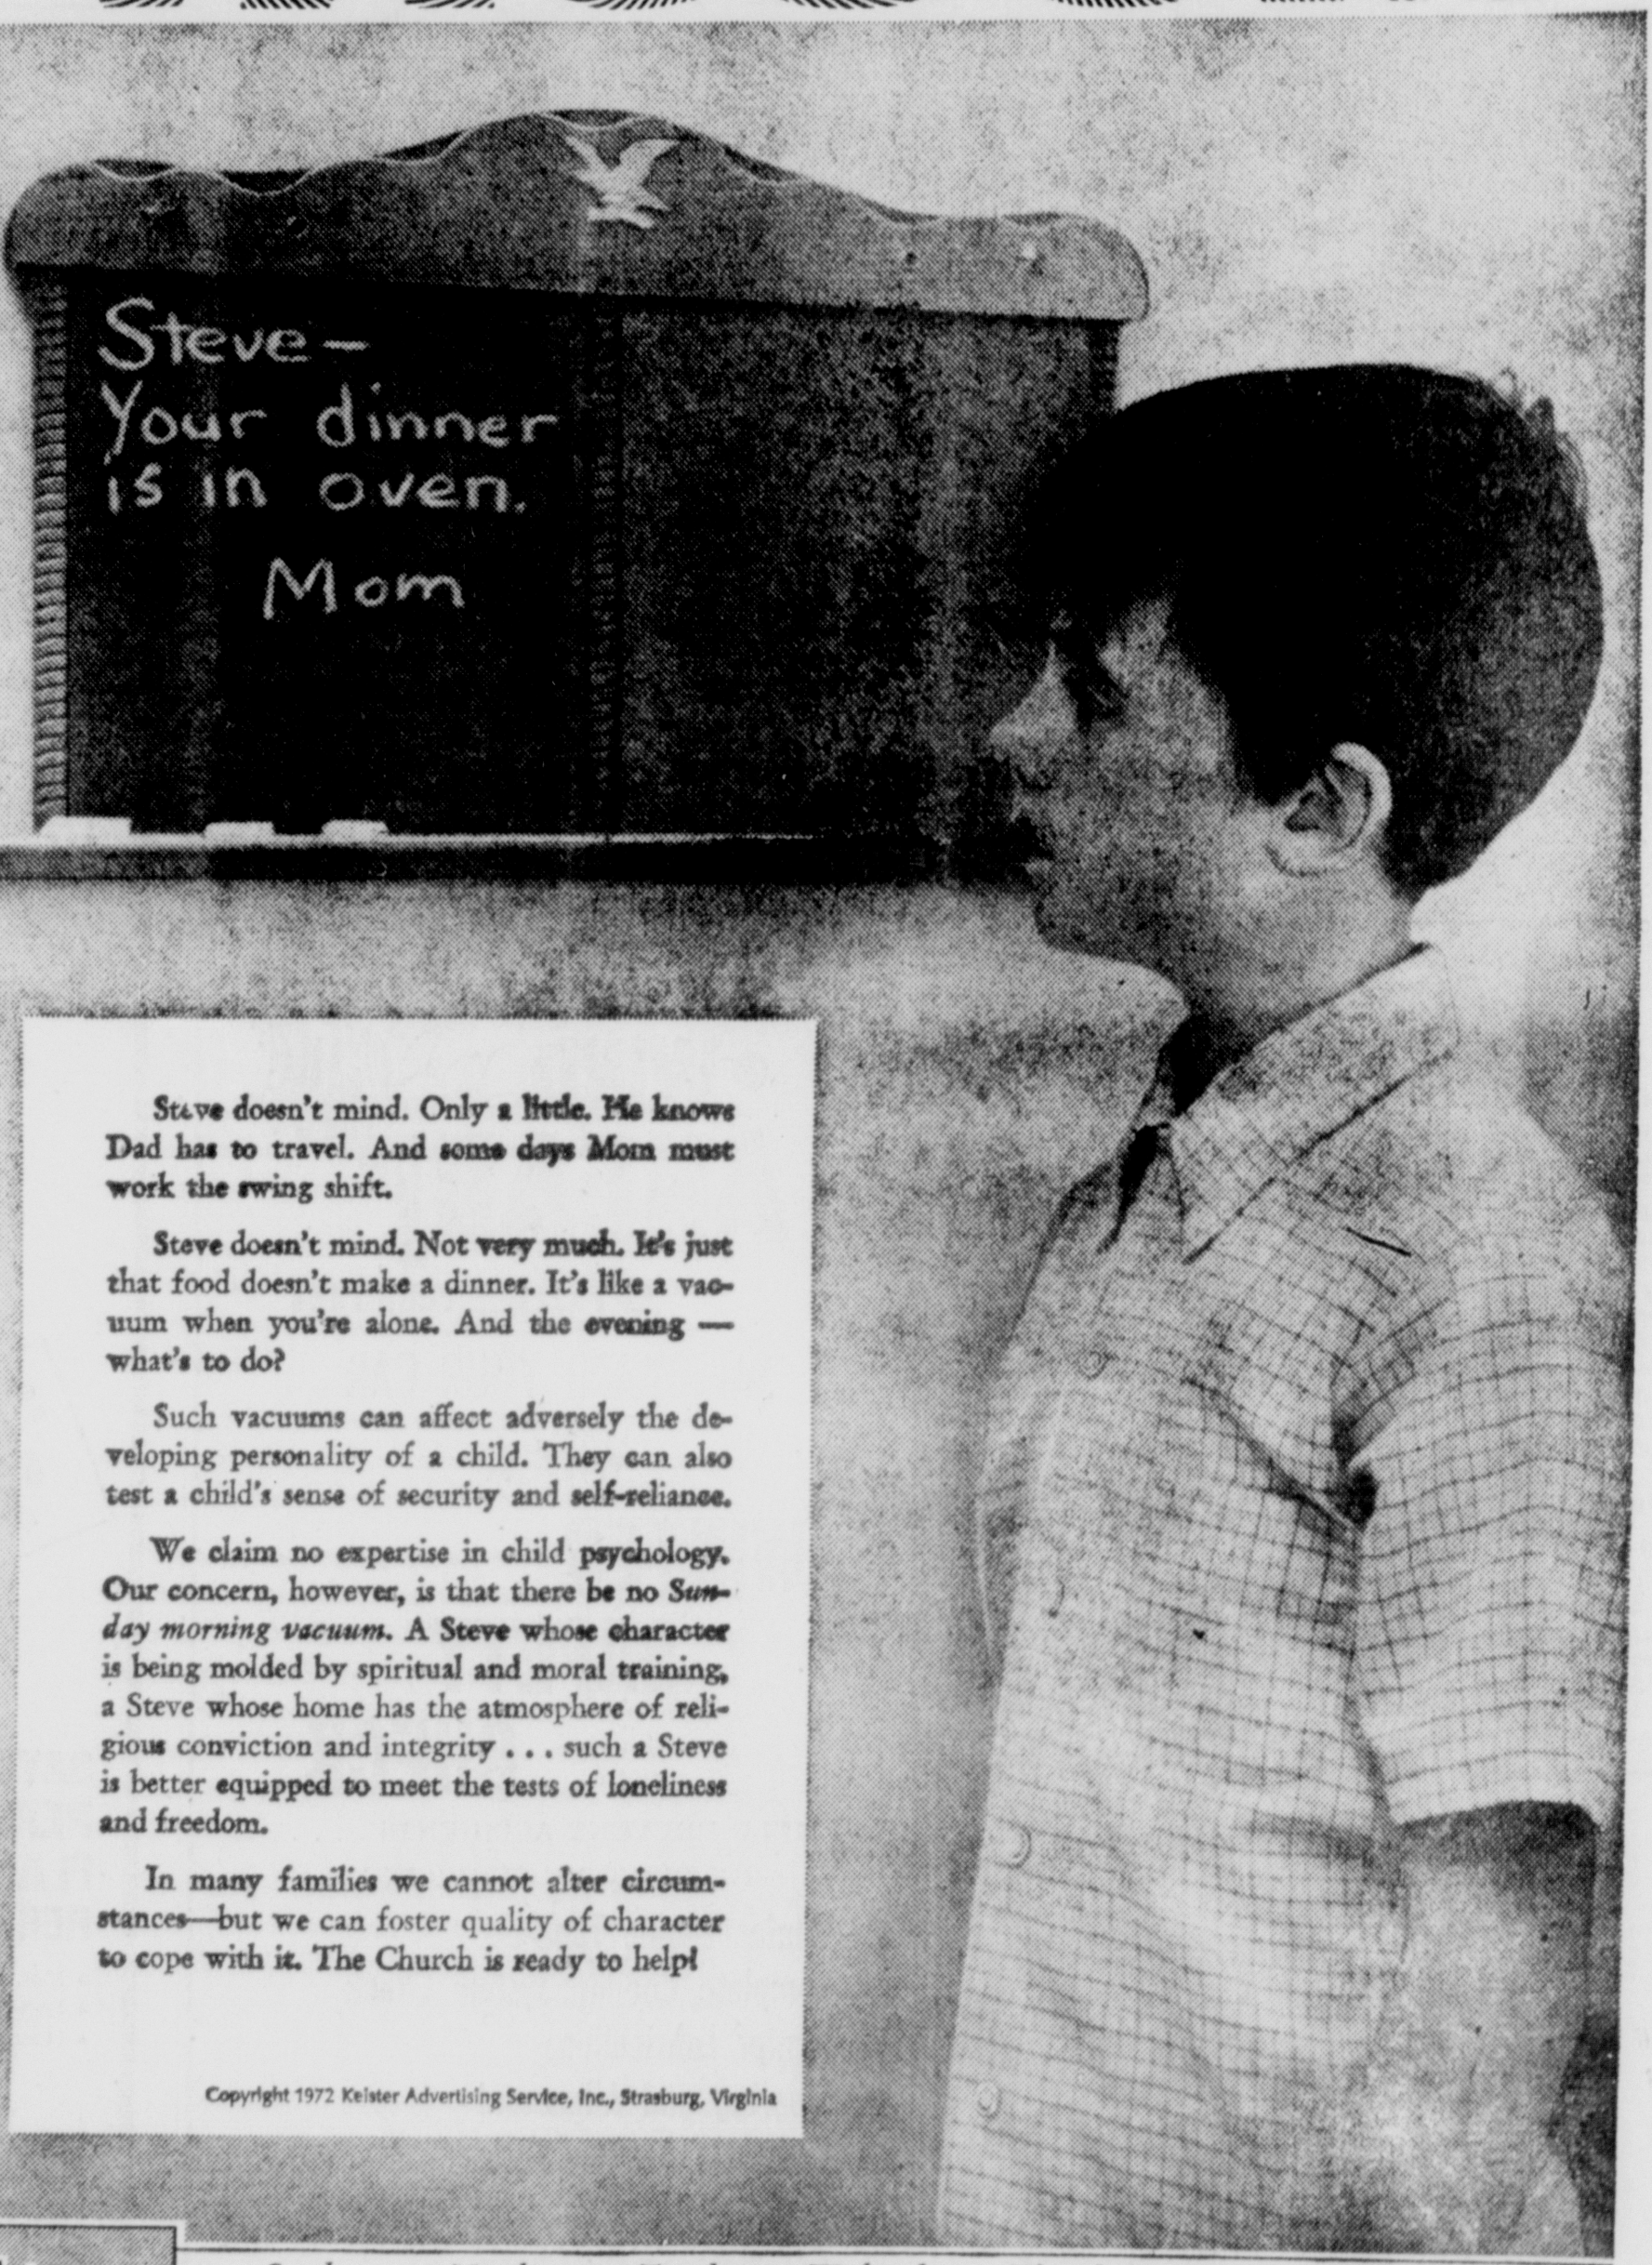

York County Administrator William P. Lawre asked the utility company to discontinue service because of the overdue bill.

Economics Lesson Learns Lesson Well

BETHELEHEM, Pa. (AP) — It wouldn't be too bad a bet to let Prof. John Greener's Moravian College economics class play with your money.

His students have run up a 94 per cent gain over the past 28 months in their investments on the New York stock market. This compares to a 51 per cent gain during that time for the Dow-Jones average.

VACUUM

Steve doesn't mind. Only a little. He knows Dad has to travel. And some days Mom must work the swing shift.

Steve doesn't mind. Not very much. It's just that food doesn't make a dinner. It's like a vacuum when you're alone. And the evening — what's to do?

Such vacuums can affect adversely the developing personality of a child. They can also test a child's sense of security and self-reliance.

We claim no expertise in child psychology. Our concern, however, is that there be no Sunday morning vacuum. A Steve whose character is being molded by spiritual and moral training, a Steve whose home has the atmosphere of religious conviction and integrity... such a Steve is better equipped to meet the tests of loneliness and freedom.

In many families we cannot alter circumstances—but we can foster quality of character to cope with it. The Church is ready to help!

Willie's Dillies

By BILL MCGAFFNEY
Herald Sports Editor

After reading all the winning recipes at the Pumpkin Show, we feel that we have a recipe that also fits into the winning category.

To start with, gather a few veteran gridders and mix well with some young, inexperienced underclassmen.

Find a good Cook and put him in charge of the whole operation. Add a hint of Lint, a Bell peal and just the right Angles.

Throw in a good conditioning program and whip the concoction into shape until it is as hard as a rock.

Now, cram the complete mixture full of a good, solid football program and continue to work it until it is as smooth as silk.

Sprinkle in a dash of class, some competitive spirit and large amount of desire and pride — This will have to be stirred — It can't be beat.

Take the product and place it on a grassy surface, under some bright lights, for about 48 minutes.

Add a lot of winning spirit and some loyal followers — When finished, decorate with a Red and Black Tiger.

Out will come an SCOL champion — better known as — Cook's Crunchers.

Our "fearless" forecast — Tigers are tougher than Panthers . . . Vikings will pick the Shamrock petals . . . Braves will untrack the Shermans . . . Mustangs will corral the Astros . . . Bengals will slip by the Oilers . . . Browns will ride over the Broncos.

Until next time, have a nice day — be a good sport.

Grid Forecaster Likes Redskins

By HUBERT MIZELL
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — New York's a two-team football town again with Norm Snead and the revamped Giants in a dead heat with Joe Namath and the Jets for Gotham's heart.

The Giants, winners of four straight, now face the biggest hurdle in their climb back to glory Sunday in a matchup against Washington with a shot at tying the 'Skins for the National Football Conference's East Division lead.

The guess is nice try, but the Giants won't win. Washington is a 24-21 choice to outgun the rejuvenated Giants.

Washington's graybeard defense and a productive Giant offense should be a near-standoff, but Sonny Jurgensen and the Redskins offenders have an edge on a young New York secondary that sometimes makes juvenile mistakes.

A Washington victory would put added pressure on Dallas in Monday night's television game against the Detroit Lions.

Washington, 5-1, is a game ahead of both Dallas and the Giants at 4-2.

Monday's prediction is for Roger Staubach to make a comeback at quarterback and spur the Cowboys to a bruising 24-20 decision over the Lions, co-leaders with Green Bay at 4-2 in the NFC Central.

An 18-7 season guessing record puts the percentage at .720 after incredible upsets last weekend by Philadelphia and Denver made the Sunday-Monday mark 8-4-1.

Here's a look at the other 11 NFL games scheduled this weekend:

Los Angeles, 4-1-1, at Oakland, 3-2-1: Maybe the A's left some luck at the Oakland stadium. The Raiders to run up a surprising 30-17 margin and protect a half-game lead in the fading American Conference West.

Kansas City, 3-3, at San Diego, 2-3-1: Chiefs, 0-3 in magnificent Arrowhead Stadium, are 27-20 picks on the road. Anybody who loses to Philadelphia has something to make up for.

Miami, 6-0, at Baltimore, 1-5: Colts are still grunting and fumbling over their coach's firing and John Unitas' demotion and the Dolphins seem strong enough to win even with so-so execution. Miami to take it 27-14.

Minnesota, 2-4, at Green Bay, 4-2: The Purple Puffs have had it if Fred Cox' leg doesn't straighten out and Fran Tarkenton's luck doesn't change. The Pack is sorta back, but the Vikings to take this one 21-17 and further scramble the Central race.

San Francisco, 2-3-1, at Atlanta, 4-2: Falcons have always been defensively potent and now Bob Berry's occasional passing wizardry gives them a blue chip chance at whipping the Rams in the NFC West. Steve Spurrier is doing okay as John Brodie's stand-in at quarterback, but Atlanta to do it 20-17 this time.

New England, 2-4, at New York Jets, 4-2: Jets murdered Pats 44-13 three weeks ago at Foxboro and Joe Namath didn't even cut loose his arm. If Joe goes after that leaky New England pass defense, it'll be 31-14 Jets.

Cleveland, 3-3, at Denver, 2-4: Quarterback Charley Johnson has put life in the Bronco offense while the Browns continue to flutter Denver 17-10.

Pittsburgh, 4-2, at Buffalo, 2-4: Steeler defense hasn't allowed a touchdown in nine quarters, but that should end against a creditable Bill attack.

But, the Steelers to win 20-14. Houston, 1-5 at Cincinnati, 4-2: The Bengal offense still isn't Grade A, so it's placekicker Horst Muhlmann to settle the game 13-10.

Chicago, 2-3-1, at St. Louis, 2-4: Bears won't be as ready as when they tangled with Minnesota Monday night, but Bobby Douglass—the unarmed quarterback—will pull off a victory in the 20-10 neighborhood.

Philadelphia, 1-5, at New Orleans, 0-5-1: Both teams went out last Sunday and ruined the Losers' Bowl; the Eagles upsetting Kansas City and the Saints deadlocking the 49ers. But, it's still some sort of classic matchup of the NFL's bottom teams and Phillie is a 27-21 choice.

Beulah Park Ends Season Saturday

Beulah Park, the granddaddy of Ohio racing plants, brings down the curtain for '72 thoroughbred racing in central Ohio Saturday by offering a premier starting field for its final feature — the $30,000 added All American Handicap for three-year-olds and up stepping one mile and a furlong.

The rivalry among four of the key starters is so intense, and the field generally so class, that it combines the necessary ingredients for a race to remember.

Mrs. T. E. Pittenger's Burglary has been requested to carry top weight of 133 lbs. The six-year-old stands 6-3-0 for 10 starts this season, having won three handicaps, and three times in allowance company.

His only 'out of the money' finish came on August 26 when he ran fourth to the likes of Central Paris, Royal Harmony, and Merry Native in the Cleveland Gold Cup July 22, where he scored by a length-and-a-half over Central Paris, but in their nine career meetings Central Paris holds a 6-3 edge.

But, he followed on Labor Day with an impressive revenge win over Central Paris, Royal Harmony and Merry Native in the Governors' Buckeye Cup at Cincinnati's River Downs.

Central Paris and Merry Native are in this race too, the former fresh from his two length victory over Call Me Jodie in Beulah's Ohio Championship Handicap Oct. 21.

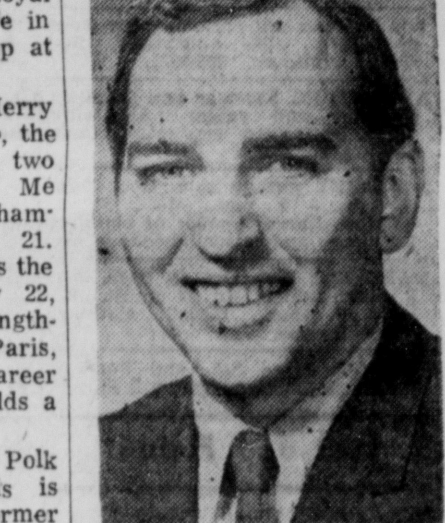

Merry Native's last win was the Cleveland Gold Cup July 22, where he scored by a length-and-a-half over Central Paris, but in their nine career meetings Central Paris holds a 6-3 edge.

Coupled as the Albert F. Polk entry with Central Paris is Risquer, no mean performer himself who has beaten Merry Native in allowance, and run second to his stable mate in '72 handicap races in Cleveland.

In addition to the All-American, Beulah Park is, for the second consecutive year offering a key quarter horse event its final day — the $2,790. Quarter Horse Congress Futurity for two-year-olds at 350 yards.

Post-time for Saturday's first race is 1:30 p.m. at the Grove City oval, and will be preceded by a two chariot race, all for fun at 440 yards, at 1 p.m.

86 Personal Fouls Called In Squires - Rockets Game

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Officials cried "Foul" at the American Basketball Association game between the Virginia Squires and Denver Rockets.

And foul, foul and foul . . . By the time Thursday night's match was finished, a single-game record of 86 personal fouls had been set and the Squires had a 155-111 triumph.

That wasn't the only record set in the foul-punctuated match by a long shot.

Two of the records were set by the Rockets—56 personal fouls with seven players ejected. The Squires set records with 82 free throw attempts and 74 conversions.

The Squires used 44 of those charity points in a record-tying, 53-point fourth quarter to bury the visitors.

Denver Coach Alex Hannum called the foul show, "an experiment."

Hannum said he told his team "to play the exact same kind of defense as Virginia, only more so. I openly admit I went to an extreme, but I wanted to experiment."

Hannum said he wanted to illustrate what he considers "a bad trend," in pro basketball.

In the only other ABA game Thursday night, the Utah Stars blitzed the Memphis Tams 151-98.

Two games were played in the National Basketball Association, where the Milwaukee Bucks topped the Kansas City-Omaha Kings 114-108 and Chicago edged Golden State 94-93.

In scoring the record-tying 53 points in the last quarter, the Squires made only four field goals—one a three-pointer by William Franklin. Eight Virginia players scored in double figures, including Julius Erving with 22. He also had 11 rebounds.

Ron Boone and Zelmo Beaty sparked Utah to a 47-point second quarter as the Stars drubbed the Tams. Boone and Beaty scored 12 points each in the second-period outburst.

Bob Dandridge and Oscar Robertson led a third-period scoring burst that carried Milwaukee past Kansas City-Omaha. The score was tied 13 times before Dandridge hit two free throws to give Milwaukee an 80-78 lead with 3:40 left in the period. Robertson and Dandridge then led a surge that gave Milwaukee a 90-80 lead.

Bob Love threw in 30 points to pace Chicago over Golden State. Cazzie Russell had 28 for the losers. Love connected on five straight jump shots in the final 3:12 of the game to clinch the victory for the Bulls.

Arnie Palmer Grabs Lead In Sahara

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — Arnold Palmer had a twinkle in his eye as he sat and savored the six-under-par 65 he'd posted in the first round of the $125,000 Sahara Invitational Golf Tournament.

That gave the struggling old champion a share of first place Thursday with four others and gave him a good shot—for the second time in as many weeks—of ending a 15-month victory famine.

"Maybe this time," the 43-year-old figure, already a legend, said with a smile, "maybe this time I can make it stand up."

He'd led last week's Kaiser International by two strokes after two rounds, but his putting touch deserted him and he finished well back in the pack.

Palmer's 65, forged over the Country Club course, put him in a first-round tie with veteran Doug Sanders, rookie standout Lanny Wadkins, Larry Ziegler and Canadian George Knudson, the streaking winner of the Kaiser last week.

Jack Nicklaus, the man who has dominated the game this season with six victories and a record $284,000 in winnings, was just one stroke back and tied at 66 with Vietnam war hero Bud Allin.

Tiger Frosh Stop Panthers

Circleville's freshmen grid-ders came up with a fine team effort and their biggest win of the season Thursday when they upended a huge Miami Trace squad, 14-6.

The Tigers offense put 14 points on the board in the first half and then turned the game over to the defensive unit which held Trace to a mere six points in the final two quarters.

Bunny Weethee scampered 50 yards in the first period to put the Tigers out in front and John Payne smashed over from the 1-yard line late in the second canto for the Red and Black scores. Biff Bumgarner raced over for the two point conversion after the second tally.

The defensive unit came up with a great second half goal line stand when Trace failed to score after having a first down and goal to go on the Tiger 1-yard stripe.

Trace's touchdown came after they recovered a fumble deep in Circleville territory. A final Miami threat ended when Roger Halley intercepted a desperation pass late in the game.

Bumgarner picked up 90 yards rushing in the contest and Payne added 60 more in addition to some fine offensive blocking.

Circleville coaches singled out Jim Cordle, Tom Strawser and Tim Hartinger for their fine offensive and defensive play.

The little Tigers will be at Unioto Saturday.

Bengals Defense Worries Oilers

CINCINNATI (AP) — The Houston Oilers, who traded for two Bengals running backs to bolster their offense, hope to do what Kansas City and Los Angeles were unable to do—break down Cincinnati's defense.

The Oilers will carry a 1-5 mark into the National Football League game here Sunday against the Bengals, who boast a 4-2 record.

"We showed much better on offense last week, but there is still room for improvement," Houston Coach Bill Peterson said, adding he believes the addition of Fred Willis and Paul Robinson this week will give the Oilers a big lift.

Led by quarterback Dan Pastorini, who draws praise from Cincinnati Coach Paul Brown, the Oilers registered 364 yards total offense last week. They lost to Cleveland 23-17, but in each of two previous contests, the Oilers gained only 190 yards.

The Bengals dropped a 15-12 decision to Los Angeles, although holding the Rams to only 55 yards rushing and 100 yards passing.

The week before, the defense stymied Kansas City and thwarted a last-minute scoring drive as the Bengals won 23-16.

"Cincinnati has one of the most underrated defenses in the game," Peterson said.

"They have been getting great play from their front four . . . rookie safety Tommy Casanova has done an outstanding job also. "It's going to be another tough offensive game for us."

Cincinnati's offense has two question marks through injuries, and one starter definitely is out.

Brown said second-year quarterback Ken Anderson, who's been starting, but suffered a neck and shoulder injury last week, "still is not just right."

Brown said he wouldn't decide until just before the game whether to use Anderson or veteran Virgil Carter.

Brown spoke highly of Carter's effort in coming off the bench in the second half of the Los Angeles game.

"He was really ready," Brown said. "He's poised and smart."

The other question mark is at center. Starter Bob Johnson pulled a muscle in practice this week, but Brown hopes he'll be ready Sunday.

After reading all the winning recipes at the Pumpkin Show, we feel that we have a recipe that also fits into the winning category.

To start with, gather a few veteran gridders and mix well with some young, inexperienced underclassmen.

Find a good Cook and put him in charge of the whole operation. Add a hint of Lint, a Bell peal and just the right Angles.

Throw in a good conditioning program and whip the concoction into shape until it is as hard as a rock. Now, cram the complete mixture full of a good, solid football program and continue to work it until it is as smooth as silk.

Sprinkle in a dash of class, some competitive spirit and large amount of desire and pride — This will have to be stirred — It can't be beat.

Take the product and place it on a grassy surface, under some bright lights, for about 48 minutes.

Add a lot of winning spirit and some loyal followers — When finished, decorate with a Red and Black Tiger.

Out will come an SCOL champion — better known as — Cook's Crunchers.

Our "fearless" forecast — Tigers are tougher than Panthers . . . Vikings will pick the Shamrock petals . . . Braves will untrack the Shermans . . . Mustangs will corral the Astros . . . Bengals will slip by the Oilers . . . Browns will ride over the Broncos.

Until next time, have a nice day — be a good sport.

Grid Forecaster Likes Redskins

By HUBERT MIZELL
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — New York's a two-team football town again with Norm Snead and the revamped Giants in a dead heat with Joe Namath and the Jets for Gotham's heart.

The Giants, winners of four straight, now face the biggest hurdle in their climb back to glory Sunday in a matchup against Washington with a shot at tying the 'Skins for the National Football Conference's East Division lead.

The guess is nice try, but the Giants won't win. Washington is a 24-21 choice to outgun the rejuvenated Giants.

Washington's graybeard defense and a productive Giant offense should be a near-stand-off, but Sonny Jurgensen and the Redskin offenders have an edge on a young New York secondary that sometimes makes juvenile mistakes.

A Washington victory would put added pressure on Dallas in Monday night's television game against the Detroit Lions. Washington, 5-1, is a game ahead of both Dallas and the Giants at 4-2.

Monday's prediction is for Roger Staubach to make a comeback at quarterback and spur the Cowboys to a bruising 24-20 decision over the Lions, co-leaders with Green Bay at 4-2 in the NFC Central.

An 18-7 season guessing record puts the percentage at .720 after incredible upsets last weekend by Philadelphia and Denver made the Sunday-Monday mark 8-4-1.

Here's a look at the other 11 NFL games scheduled this weekend:

Los Angeles, 4-1-1, at Oakland, 3-2-1: Maybe the A's left some luck at the Oakland stadium. The Raiders to run up a surprising 30-17 margin and protect a half-game lead in the fading American Conference West.

Kansas City, 3-3, at San Diego, 2-3-1: Chiefs, 0-3 in magnificent Arrowhead Stadium, are 27-20 picks on the road. Anybody who loses to Philadelphia has something to make up for.

Miami, 6-0, at Baltimore, 1-5: Colts are still grunting and fumbling over their coach's firing and John Unitas' demotion and the Dolphins seem strong enough to win even with so-so execution. Miami to take it 27-14.

Minnesota, 2-4, at Green Bay, 4-2: The Purple Puffs have had it if Fred Cox' leg doesn't straighten out and Fran Tarkenton's luck doesn't change. The Pack is sorta back, but the Vikings to take this one 21-17 and further scramble the Central race.

San Francisco, 2-3-1, at Atlanta, 4-2: Falcons have always been defensively potent and now Bob Berry's occasional passing wizardry gives them a blue chip chance at whipping the Rams in the NFC West. Steve Spurrier is doing okay as John Brodie's stand-in at quarterback, but Atlanta to do it 20-17 this time.

New England, 2-4, at New York Jets, 4-2: Jets murdered Pats 44-13 three weeks ago at Foxboro and Joe Namath didn't even cut loose his arm. If Joe goes after that leaky New England pass defense, it'll be 31-14 Jets.

Cleveland, 3-3, at Denver, 2-4: Quarterback Charley Johnson has put life in the Bronco offense while the Browns continue to flutter Denver 17-10.

Pittsburgh, 4-2, at Buffalo, 2-4: Steeler defense hasn't allowed a touchdown in nine quarters, but that should end against a creditable Bill attack.

But, the Steelers to win 20-14. Houston, 1-5 at Cincinnati, 4-2: The Bengal offense still isn't Grade A, so it's placekicker Horst Muhlmann to settle the game 13-10.

Chicago, 2-3-1, at St. Louis, 2-4: Bears won't be as ready as when they tangled with Minnesota Monday night, but Bobby Douglass—the unarmed quarterback—will pull off a victory in the 20-10 neighborhood.

Philadelphia, 1-5, at New Orleans, 0-5-1: Both teams went out last Sunday and ruined the Losers' Bowl; the Eagles upsetting Kansas City and the Saints deadlocking the 49ers. But, it's still some sort of classic matchup of the NFL's bottom teams and Phillie is a 27-21 choice.

Changes Are Made In Cincinnati Roster

CINCINNATI (AP) — The Cincinnati Reds added two minor league pitchers to their roster and released three others to the Indianapolis Indians farm club.

Moved up were Pat Zachary and Juaguin Andujar. Zachary had a 7.7 record with a 2.64 earned run average with Three Rivers, Quebec. Andujar was 7-6 with a 3.54 ERA.

86 Personal Fouls Called In Squires - Rockets Game

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Officials cried "Foul" at the American Basketball Association game between the Virginia Squires and Denver Rockets.

And foul, foul and foul . . . By the time Thursday night's match was finished, a single-game record of 86 personal fouls had been set and the Squires had a 155-111 triumph.

That wasn't the only record set in the foul-punctuated match by a long shot.

Two of the records were set by the Rockets—56 personal fouls with seven players ejected. The Squires set records with 92 free throw attempts and 74 conversions.

The Squires used 44 of those charity points in a record-tying, 53-point fourth quarter to bury the visitors.

Denver Coach Alex Hannum called the foul show, "an experiment."

Hannum said he told his team "to play the exact same kind of defense as Virginia, only more so. I openly admit I went to an extreme, but I wanted to experiment."

Hannum said he wanted to illustrate what he considers "a bad trend," in pro basketball.

In the only other ABA game Thursday night, the Utah Stars blitzed the Memphis Tams 151-98.

Two games were played in the National Basketball Association, where the Milwaukee Bucks topped the Kansas City-Omaha Kings 114-108 and Chicago edged Golden State 94-93.

In scoring the record-tying 53 points in the last quarter, the Squires made only four field goals—one a three-pointer by William Franklin. Eight Virginia players scored in double figures, including Julius Erving with 22. He also had 11 rebounds.

Ron Boone and Zelmo Beaty sparked Utah to a 47-point second quarter as the Stars drubbed the Tams. Boone and Beaty scored 12 points each in the second-period outburst.

Bob Dandridge and Oscar Robertson led a third-period scoring burst that carried Milwaukee past Kansas City-Omaha. The score was tied 13 times before Dandridge hit two free throws to give Milwaukee an 80-78 lead with 3:40 left in the period. Robertson and Dandridge then led a surge that gave Milwaukee a 90-80 lead.

Bob Love threw in 30 points to pace Chicago over Golden State. Cazzie Russell had 28 for the losers. Love connected on five straight jump shots in the final 3:12 of the game to clinch the victory for the Bulls.

Arnie Palmer Grabs Lead In Sahara

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — Arnold Palmer had a twinkle in his eye as he sat and savored the six-under-par 65 he'd posted in the first round of the $135,000 Sahara Invitational Golf Tournament.

That gave the struggling old champion a share of first place Thursday with four others and gave him a good shot—for the second time in as many weeks—of ending a 15-month victory famine.

"Maybe this time," the 43-year-old figure, already a legend, said with a smile, "maybe this time I can make it stand up."

He'd led last week's Kaiser International by two strokes after two rounds, but his putting touch deserted him and he finished well back in the pack.

Palmer's 65, forged over the Country Club course, put him in a first-round tie with veteran Doug Sanders, rookie standout Lanny Wadkins, Larry Ziegler and Canadian George Knudson, the streaking winner of the Kaiser last week.

Jack Nicklaus, the man who has dominated the game this season with six victories and a record 284.00 in winnings, was just one stroke back and tied at 66 with Vietnam war hero Bud Allin.

Bengals Defense Worries Oilers

CINCINNATI (AP) — The Houston Oilers, who traded for two Bengals running backs to bolster their offense, hope to do what Kansas City and Los Angeles were unable to do—break down Cincinnati's defense.

The Oilers will carry a 1-5 mark into the National Football League game here Sunday against the Bengals, who boast a 4-2 record.

"We showed much better on offense last week, but there is still room for improvement," Houston Coach Bill Peterson said, adding he believes the addition of Fred Willis and Paul Robinson this week will give the Oilers a big lift.

Led by quarterback Dan Pastorini, who draws praise from Cincinnati Coach Paul Brown, the Oilers registered 364 yards total offense last week. They lost to Cleveland 23-17, but in each of two previous contests, the Oilers gained only 190 yards.

The Bengals dropped a 15-12 decision to Los Angeles, although holding the Rams to only 55 yards rushing and 100 yards passing.

The week before, the defense stymied Kansas City and thwarted a last-minute scoring drive as the Bengals won 23-16.

"Cincinnati has one of the most underrated defenses in the game," Peterson said.

"They have been getting great play from their front four . . . rookie safety Tommy Casanova has done an outstanding job also.

"It's going to be another tough offensive game for us."

Cincinnati's offense has two question marks through injuries, and one starter definitely is out.

Brown said second-year quarterback Ken Anderson, who's been starting, but suffered a neck and shoulder injury last week, "is still in the game."

Brown said he wouldn't decide until just before the game whether to use Anderson or veteran Virgil Carter.

Brown spoke highly of Carter's effort in coming off the bench in the second half of the Los Angeles game.

"He was really ready," Brown said. "He's poised and smart."

The other question mark is at center. Starter Bob Johnson pulled a muscle in practice this week, but Brown hopes he'll be ready Sunday.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of our dear
husband and father, Paul H. Keller
who passed away October 27, 1971.
I dreamt about you yesterday,
How nice it was, how real,
I dreamt about your thoughtful
ways,
That made you so ideal,
I dreamt about our love,
That time cannot erase.
Then in the morning I wake
With a smile on my face,
Missed by his loving

In Memoriam

In loving memory of our dear
husband and father, Paul H. Keller
who passed away October 27, 1971.
I dreamt about you yesterday,
How nice it was, how real,
I dreamt about your thoughtful
ways.
That made you so ideal,
I dreamt about our love,
That time cannot erase.
Then in the morning I wake
With a smile on my face.
Missed by his loving wife, daughter and family.

1. Card of Thanks

I want to thank relatives, friends and neighbors for the many flowers, cards and visits I received while a surgical patient in Berger Hospital. Also Dr. Smith and a special thanks to Rev. DeMint for his visits, comforting words and prayers. All remembrances were greatly appreciated.
Sam Absten

Gravel Urges Big Slashes In Defense

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—The United States could cut its defense budget readily by reducing its manpower—and without endangering its security, Sen. Mike Gravel, D-Alaska, says.

He also says the nation could make public 98 per cent of what the federal government has classified as secret. Not only would the nation's security be undamaged by doing so, he says, it would be increased.

The United States' "tolerance level for secrecy is unbelievable," he told a City Club luncheon audience Thursday.

Gravel also said President Nixon's administration has instilled "a vile hatred" of persons on welfare. The average man believes welfare recipients are stealing from the wages earned by those who work, he said.

In fact, Gravel said, 57 per cent of the nation's welfare money goes to dependent children. The rest, he said, goes to the aged, the blind and mothers of dependent children—except for one per cent.

The one per cent goes to male adults of workable age, he said, half of them on training programs so they will be able to get jobs. The others work.

If the defense budget were cut, he said, the nation would have the money to fund projects that Nixon has vetoed as being ones the country can't afford. That in turn would provide jobs, he added.

The "work ethic, the idea that 'work is good,'" is one the nation must move away from, Gravel said. He said work is good only if the work a man is doing is work he enjoys.

Stock List Activity Slow

NEW YORK (AP) — Blue-chips led the stock market lower today as trading slowed in the absence of any new developments in peace negotiations.

The noon Dow Jones average of 30 industrial stocks was down 1.28 at 949.28. Among issues traded on the New York Stock Exchange, advances and declines ran about even.

Analysts said investors appeared to be disappointed because of the market's inability to sustain a rally Thursday after presidential adviser Henry A. Kissinger's statement that peace was "at hand" in Vietnam.

"When they see the signatures on the agreement, they'll believe it," said one analyst.

Polaroid was active and down 3 1/2 at 129 1/2. The company introduced its new small SX-70 Land camera Thursday night.

The New York Stock Exchange index of more than 1,400 common stocks was off .08 to 60.69 at noon. The American Stock exchange price-change index was unchanged at 25.89.

Gravel Urges Big Slashes In Defense

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—The United States could cut its defense budget readily by reducing its manpower—and without endangering its security, Sen. Mike Gravel, D-Alaska, says.

He also says the nation could make public 98 per cent of what the federal government has classified as secret. Not only would the nation's security be undamaged by doing so, he says, it would be increased.

The United States' "tolerance level for secrecy is unbelievable," he told a City Club luncheon audience Thursday.

Gravel also said President Nixon's administration has instilled "a vile hatred" of persons on welfare. The average man believes welfare recipients are stealing from the wages earned by those who work, he said.

In fact, Gravel said, 57 per cent of the nation's welfare money goes to dependent children. The rest, he said, goes to the aged, the blind and mothers of dependent children—except for one per cent.

The one per cent goes to male adults of workable age, he said, half of them on training programs so they will be able to get jobs. The others work.

If the defense budget were cut, he said, the nation would have the money to fund projects that Nixon has vetoed as being ones the country can't afford. That in turn would provide jobs, he added.

The "work ethic, the idea that 'work is good,'" is one the nation must move away from, Gravel said. He said work is good only if the work a man is doing is work he enjoys.

Stock List Activity Slow

NEW YORK (AP)—Blue-chips led the stock market lower today as trading slowed in the absence of any new developments in peace negotiations.

The noon Dow Jones average of 30 industrial stocks was down 1.23 at 949.28. Among issues traded on the New York Stock Exchange, advances and declines ran about even.

Analysts said investors appeared to be disappointed because of the market's inability to sustain a rally Thursday after presidential adviser Henry A. Kissinger's statement that peace was "at hand" in Vietnam.

"When they see the signatures on the agreement, they'll believe it," said one analyst.

Polaroid was active and down 3/4 at 129 1/2. The company introduced its new small SX-70 Land camera Thursday night.

The New York Stock Exchange index of more than 1,400 common stocks was off .08 to 60.69 at noon. The American Stock exchange price-change index was unchanged at 25.89.
